CELEBRATE

There are two main forms of celebration this year, dances and Homecoming.

Dances, both school sponsored and private, have always had their share of popularity, but this year Saturday Night Fever struck.

Spirit Week, a football game, and a Saturday night dance comprised the most celebrated event of the year---Homecoming.

CELEBRATE

Various types of celebration occur. The celebration spectrum ranged from water balloon fights and mud tug-of-wars to faculty physical fitness (exemplified by "fingers push-ups"), and the ever popular eating.

CELEBRATE STUDENT LIFE

students vote yes for limitation

Homecoming activities for 1977 included Jersey Day, Overall and T-Shirt Day, Hat and Clash Day, and Black and Gold day. Other activities included sign competition, student and faculty races, waterballoon fights, and tug-of-war over a mud pit.

Limitation of royalty was a controversial issue. The issue was brought before the student body to vote on. The proposal said the honor of homecoming maid would be limited to one year and would take effect in the 1977 JHS Homecoming Election. Approximately 75 percent of the JHS Student Body voted yes in favor of the limitation.

Royalty was voted on Friday, Oct. 7, and the election was limited to those girls who had not previously received the honor. The queen was chosen by the football team.

Lori Surbaugh was selected as 1977 Homecoming Queen. Her court consisted of senior maids Cindy Falls, Ann O'Dell, Polly Richardson; junior maids, Lisa Ledbetter, Sandra Lindley; sophomore maids, Jennifer Green, Kim Vick; freshmen maids, Adele Little, Lynn Wolfe.

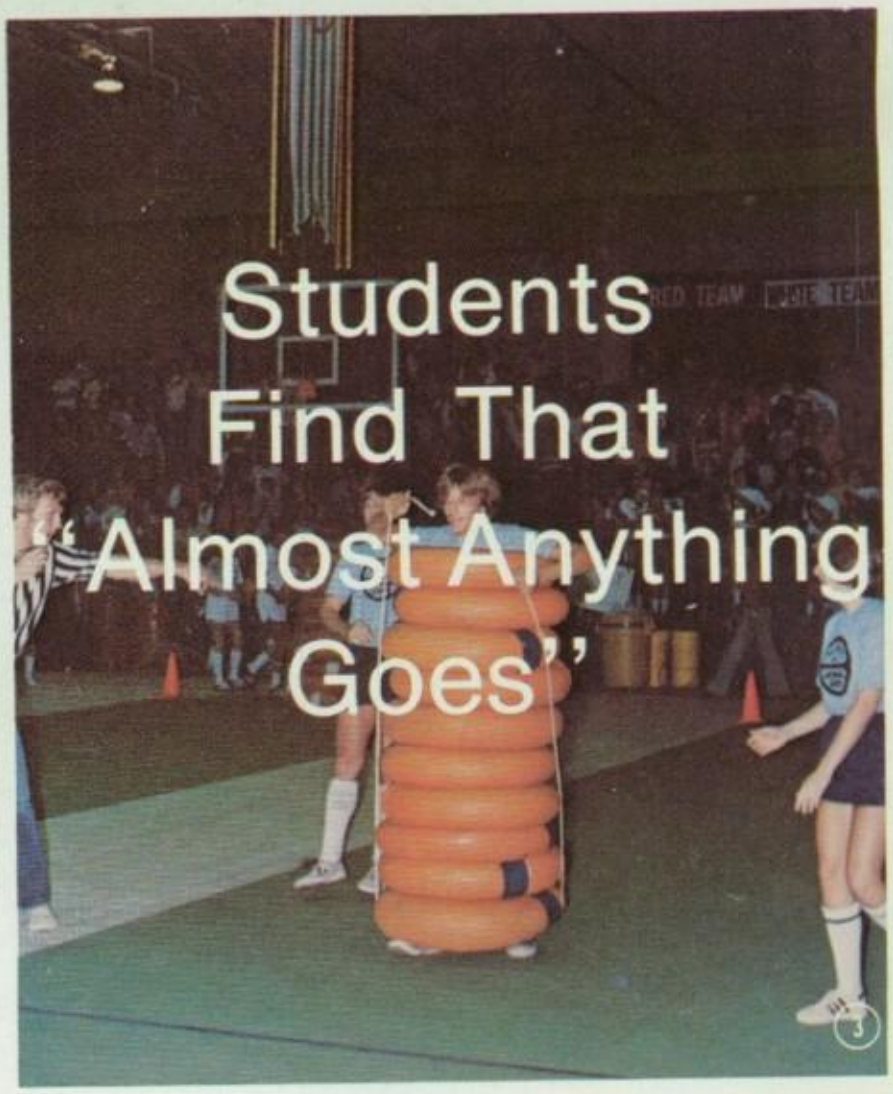
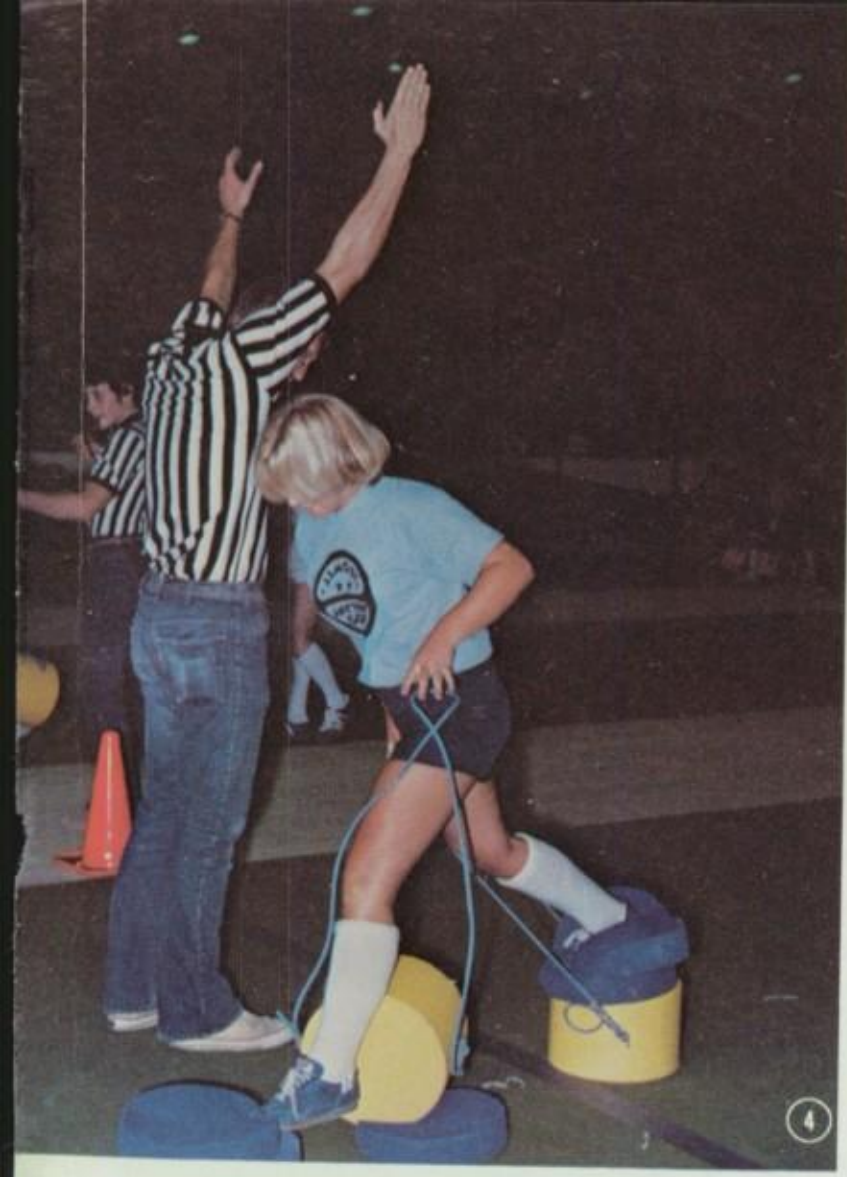
The 1977 Homecoming Day began with the Royalty being announced at the Pep Assembly. Ricky McKinney as Carnack the Great, and Kevin Pagan entertained the Student Body with a skit. School was dismissed at two o'clock for the parade.

The Homecoming Parade got underway at three o'clock featuring floats, bands and club cars.

That night the Golden Gang met the Conway Wampus Cats in a battle on the gridiron. The Royalty was announced during the pregame festivities. At halftime, it was announced that the Junior Class had captured first place in the float competition, with senior and freshmen receiving second and third place respectively. The Senior Class won the Spirit Stick. The week ended with a homecoming mixer Saturday night from eight till twelve o'clock in the new gym. Rick Barrow acted as DJ and the JHS Royalty was announced along with their dates.

Students Find That "Almost Anything Goes"





Jonesboro High School Student Council fielded an "Almost Anything Goes" team to compete with Nettleton and Westside High Schools and emerged victorious.

Members of the team were: Mark Settles, Michael Lewellen, Matt Garner, Cindy Falls, Carla Owens, and Jean Hosinski.

Four events tested the skill and awkwardness of each team. The first event was a race the length of the basketball court with ten innertubes over one person's body. JHS took the early lead.

Michael Lewellen and Jean Hosinski became partners in the next race and found it difficult to meet the demands of this race as they were unable to pick up a ball back to back sitting down. No one was able to score on this event. While one team was able to pick the ball up they were unable to deposit it in the bucket at the other end of the court.

Carla Owens then learned that walking on heels is much harder than it seems when your racing with pads underneath round blocks of wood. Carla, too, came out victorious.

The final race was a test of speed and accuracy. The contestants had to run down the court, step over a hurdle at half court, run to the other end, sit on a balloon to pop it, and run back and tag the next runner. Jonesboro took second in this event, but already had it sewed up. JHS final score was 27, that was 11 points more than the second place team.

PEP MEETINGS

JHS students spend many hours doing homework and studying for tests, but when it comes time for the pep meeting, its time to lay all other things aside and cheer our team onto another Hurricane VICTORY!!

We possess a sense of pride for our school and its activities that is shared by both students and faculty.

Pride is reasonable self-respect based on a consciousness of worth, it is satisfaction arising from one's achievements and possessions. We have achieved this and upheld our name as the great "HURRICANES OF 1978."

1. SENIOR Class gives the Hurricane Basketball team strong support during the pep meetings and at the games. 2. SENIOR Class stands up and gives the cheer "VICTORY that's the Hurricane battle cry." 3. STUDENT Council President, Lance Miller, takes an active part in the pep meeting and many others join him. 4. James Cooper says, "There's nothing like a cream pie in the face." 5. HAPPINESS is shown by the cheerleaders as they lead the student body in a favorite cheer. 6. FRESHMEN wait patiently to see who will receive the spirit stick. 7. FRESHMEN, what should we do now, laugh or cry? 8. SOPHOMORES believe that yelling is all part of the game.

Who Says School Is # Boring?

Some students come to school each day with the ideal that school is boring. To them, attending school is something they have to do.

But the school day can be filled with fun. Of course there are times when serious moments must prevail, (like examination time). However, in class, between classes, free periods, and lunch breaks provide students with an opportunity to talk and laugh with friends.

School should be attended with the attitude, "I am going to enjoy learning." Notice the smiles of students on these two pages. Do they look bored?

Just as people change, fashions change from one year to the next.

To keep warm during the winter, rabbit coats could be seen hopping around school. Some were long and wrapped around and some were short and zipped up the front. Boots were also popular. Western style boots were worn with jeans and pants while dressy boots were worn with dresses. Sometimes they were worn to keep the feet warm.

Khacki was the rage this year. Everything was khacki. Pants, tops, and dresses. Even the guys began to wear it.

The popular kind of skirt was the dirndle skirt with a shawl. The dirndle skirt is softly gathered at the waist with a matching shawl tied around the shoulders. The peasant skirt was also popular. This skirt tied at the waist and had three tiers. Also very stylish was the pleated skirt.

The guys began looking nicer by wearing fancier blue jeans or khacki pants and pullover sweaters.

Accessories for clothes were many. The stick pin was worn on cowl necks or sweaters. Fourteen karat gold necklaces and bracelets could be seen on many girls. Combs to wear in your hair were quite attractive. The new idea in purses was the clutch, which had no straps and was carried under the arm.

But of course some fashions remained the same. Blue jeans and T-shirts!

The 1977 Hurricane Ball was celebrated Dec. 17 in the P.E. Building. The theme was "An Evening in Paradise." A setting of trees and a bridge was used for the backdrop for the pictures taken by photographer Bill Lemmons. The ball lasted from 8:00 to 12:00 with music by DJ Guy Patteson. The Who's Who was announced by Hurricane Editor Nancy Pryor during the dance. The ball was sponsored by the Annual Staff.

Juniors Present "Our Town"

Thorton Wilder's classic drama "Our Town" was presented by the Junior Class Dec. 1, 2, and 3 in the JHS Theater.

The play, set in the early 1900's in a rural New England town, was unique in the aspect that no scenery or props were used. The stage manager (Scott Gibson) acted as an interpreter in the drama, relating the joy and happiness, along with the problems and complexities, that life brings.

In the first act, the audience was led through a day in the lives of two "average" American families. They are introduced to Dr. Frank Gibbs and his wife (Kevin Pagan and Trudy Purvis) and their two children, George and Rebecca (Chuck Gshwend and Lisa Ledbetter). They also meet Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webb (John Fiala and Mary McCauley) along with their two children, Emily and Wally (Sandra Lindley and Harold Copenhaver).

In the second act, which takes place three years later, George and Emily were married in a moving wedding scene which caused the audience to realize how fast time passes in their lives.

The final act was set in a cemetery where the funeral of young Emily Gibbs brought her into contact with others who had died before her. They patiently were awaiting the day of final judgement. After an emotional scene in which Emily re-lives a day in her life, she realizes, as the others had, that life passes too quickly to be lived to its fullest.

Mr. Johnny Redd and Miss Ann Pettengell directed the play, which also featured James McNeill, Jim Osment, Ricky McKinney, Janet Horton, Bob Childress, Valerie Lingle, Kieth Harris, Michelle McGinnis, Mark McDonald, Kem Reed, Mike Soo, Brant Crisp, Scott Willhite, Phillip Easley, Matt Garner, and several students who portrayed residents of the town.

1. LISA Ledbetter makes some minor adjustments before going on stage. 2. DR. and Mrs. Gibbs (Kevin Pagan and Trudy Purvis) discuss their future. 3. MR. Webb (John Fiala) comforts his daughter (Sandra Lindley) before her wedding. 4. GEORGE (Chuck Gshwend) and Emily profess their love for each other before their wedding. 5. CAST members prepare themselves for opening night. 6. THE stage manager (Scott Gibson) ponders the question of death while in the cemetery. 7. FRIENDS and relatives attend Emily's funeral. 8. MRS. Webb (Mary McCauley) comments on the harshness of a young marriage.

"Go Ask Alice" Leaves Lasting Impression

"Go Ask Alice," a drama adapted from a true-to-life story, was presented by the Senior Class of JHS April 13, 14, and 15 in the JHS Theater.

The play, under the direction of Mrs. Kay Brogdon, centered around 16-year old Alice Aberdeen, (Laura Mack) and her family; her brother and sister (Tim Hynes and Linda Jarvis); and her parents, (Bill Leech and Marla Osborn).

Alice is in a delimma because it seems that her friends aren't as close to her as they once were. One of her friends, Beth (Lorri Witt), introduces her to Samuel (David Duke), who only wants to be friends in an intimate way. This convinces Alice that she has to make new friends.

At a party she meets Jill (Debbie Linam), Gloria (Bobbi Bennett), Chris (Ann O'dell), Joe (David Blanchard), Bill (David McQueen), and Jan (Annette Roberts). These new "friends" soon trick her into trying drugs by putting some in a soft drink. After a while, Alice inadvertently becomes "hooked."

After her life seems to fall apart, Alice decides to run away to California with Chris. Together, they find work in a boutique and meet two drug-users, Freedie and Peg (Dawn Caffery and Charlette Blankenship). Although they stopped using drugs, they are under constant pressure to return to the drug scene. Sheila (Jenny Rutherford), another acquaintance, is tempting them with drugs continually. It soon becomes apparent to Alice that she is not happy, so she returns home to her family.

After returning home, Alice makes new friends and finds that two boys, George and Joel (Mark Hayes and Brad Snider) are interested in her. When Alice's life returns to normal, she receives some candy which contains some hidden LSD. When Marge (Carla Owen) comes to pick her up, Alice goes on a "trip" and tries to commit suicide. She is then committed to a mental hospital for treatment.

While being treated by Dr. Miller (Ruth Hatridge), she becomes acquainted with Tom, Babbie, and Gertrude (James McCauley, Cindy Falls, and Jill Schroeder).

After treatment, Alice returns home where she experiences a violent flashback when she is alone. She takes an overdose of sleeping pills and dies as a result.

The drama was performed against an interesting set designed and constructed by the Theater Arts and Crafts class.

Mrs. Kay Brgdon, who directed the play with assistance from Miss Karen Cron and Miss Beth Ashcraft, will be leaving JHS to take a teaching job in another town. Her final production at JHS was added to the list of successful productions which Mrs. Brogdon has directed and assisted with during her teaching stint at JHS.

1. SOME of Alice's new friends gather in her room for a party. It is at this party that Alice (Laura Mack) is "tricked" into trying drugs. 2. PEG (Charlette Blankenship) and Freddie (Dawn Caffery) ponder where they are going to get their next "fix" of drugs. 3. ALICE'S parents (Bill Leech and Marla Osborn) return home to find Alice dead of a drug overdose. 4. MR. Abredeen has a discussion with George (Mark Hayes), a young man who has been dating Alice after her return from California. 5. MARGE (Carla Owen) tries to console Alice during her flashback. 6. MRS. Aberdeen talks with Alice concerning her declining social activity.

"Carousel" Is Success

Many long hours of rehearsal and hoarse voices went into the production of the JHS Hurricane Choir musical, "Carousel." The musical, under the direction of Mr. Robert Fuller, was presented in the JHS Theater May 11, 12, and 13.

The action centered around young Billy Bigelow (Will Cate), a carousel attendant who, after quitting his job, struggles to find happiness and success. He meets, falls in love with, and eventually marries Julie Jordan (Karen Cron). However, the couple does not live happily ever after.

After unsuccessfully trying to find a job, and under constant pressure from Mr. Mullin (Carla Owen) to return to his despised job as carousel attendant, Billy falls in with Jigger Craigin (David Duke), a mischievous sailor. After unsuccessfully trying to rob a man, Billy is killed.

Billy wakes to find himself in heaven. Billy learns that he gets a chance to return to earth to see his daughter (Melody Rogers), the person he died for while trying to support her. He soon finds that she is not accepted because of her father's reputation. Billy decides to do something good for his daughter, so he instills in her mind that anyone can do anything if they set their mind to it.

Fine performances were also turned in by Kathy Howerton as Carrie Pepperidge, Brad Snider as Enoch Snow, and Lori Shownes as Nettie Fowler. The rest of choir portrayed characters who added greatly to the musical with their singing.

With Mr. Fuller's departure, "Carousel" brings to an end his long line of noted JHS musical productions.

1. ENOCH Snow (Brad Snider) and Carrie Pepperidge (Kathy Howerton) discuss their future plans. 2. JULIE Jordan (Karen Cron) and Carrie converse about their beaus. 3. BILLY Bigelow (Will Cate) and Mrs. Mullin (Carla Owen) argue about Billy's job. 4. CAST members rehearse a selection. 5. SOME local beach bums are scolded by Carrie. 6. THE girls talk over their troubles concerning their loved ones.

LET'S GO TO THE MOVIES

Let's think for a minute about some of the great movies we saw here during the past year. STAR WARS set a record for the longest playing movie. ANNIE HALL didn't hit big in Jonesboro but won national awards for the best movie of the year. Remember these big movies- SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER with John Travolta, Karen Corney, THE GOODBYE GIRL with Richard Dreyfuss, Marsha Mason and ONE ON ONE with Robbi Benson. THE GAUNTLET, CLOSE ENCOUNTERS OF THE THIRD KIND, THE OTHER SIDE OF THE MOUNTAIN PART II, and SMOKEY AND THE BANDIT were all big hits around Jonesboro. Henry Winkler starred in two movies that did well, THE ONE AND ONLY and HEROES. JULIA and THE TURNING POINT were nominated for academy awards. Here are a few scenes from some of these movies. Recognize them or do you need some help?

1. Robbie Benson in ONE ON ONE. 2. John Travolta in SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER here Travolta gets a little sidetracked on his way back from getting some paint. 3. George Burns and John appeared in OH, GOD! 4. Clint Eastwood rode this bus through the GAUNTLET. 5. Mel Brooks comedy HIGH ANXIETY had scenes from many books, including THE BIRDS. 6. This poster shows Clint Eastwood and Sondra Locke running from the police in the GAUNTLET. 7. John Travolta and Karen Corney dance to the beat of "Night Fever" in SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER. 8. Henry Winkler and Salley Fields appeared in the movie HEROES.

In 1907 Jonesboro High School began in a large frame residence on the Davis property. This property was bought a year later by the Jonesboro Public School System.

In 1917 the school moved to Church Street where it continued until the spring of 1939. Because of over crowding, the school moved to the former Jonesboro Baptist College building. This was the location of JHS until the 1973 tornado which destroyed the building.

From the beginning of the 1973-74 school year JHS was located at the Craighead County Fairgrounds . During the time of attendance at the Fairgrounds, a six million dollar school was being constructed on Main Street.

In the spring of 1976 the school was finished and the students were back at home on the hill. When the 1976-77 school year began freshmen came to high school.

1. THE second building of JHS constructed in 1917 was located on Church Street. The building was later used for the administration until destroyed in September of this year. 2. # Staff Promotes Sales

This year the annual staff had a campaign to promote the sale of yearbooks. The theme was "Have You Got Yours"? Staff members wore T-shirts that said either "Have You Got Yours" or "I Got Mine." Bumper stickers were given out, posters were placed around the school and special announcements were made.

1. ANNUAL Staff members sell yearbooks in front of the auditorium. 2. MATT Garner sells a yearbook subscription to Joyce Lee.

A year to remember . . . .

1. The Senate failed to pass the first two ports of President Carters hotly contested Panama Canal Treaty.
2. President Carter mystified the nation with his "Down Home" type of living.
3. "SON of Sam" killer David Bevkowitz was sentenced to 315 years in prison for the killing of six people and the wounding of seven others.
4. THE nation missed the presence of Hubert Humphrey, well-known senator from Minnesota who died after a long illness.

A year to remember . . . .

1. BERT Lance, director of management and budget, resigned after a heated controversy concerning his personal financial practices.
2. JOCKEY Steve Cauthen made horse racing history by riding Affirmed to horse racing triple crown victory.
3. "SOAP" a comedy TV series based on soap operas, aroused the publics dander with its satirical look at sex and violence in an American family.
4. "ANNIE HALL" won the academy award for best picture of the year.
5. THE nation mourned the passing of Elvis Presley. He is the nation's rock and roll legend.
6. ANITA Bryant aroused criticism and praise with her persistent stand against gay rights in America.

Enrollment Increases

The enrollment at JHS on Aug 22 was 1632 students with the new registrations cotinuing to come in. Of these, 376 were seniors, 374 were juniors, 443 were sophomores, and 439 were freshmen. On Wednesday, Aug. 24, opening day for students, 1529 were present in homeroom. This number dropped to 1518 on Thursday, but on Friday rose to 1543.

With the enrollment increasing at JHS from the 1976-77 year of 1485, a 7 period day was necessary and each student had at least one free period every day.

Mr. Jones of the Social Studies Department said that some students were forced to be seated on the floor at the first of the year while waiting for desks to be brought in.

Crusade Against Smoking

About 100 seniors, juniors and sponsors from throughout the state participated in the "Crusade Against Smoking" workshop held at the Camelot Inn in Little Rock during November. The workshop was conducted to prepare the non-smoking students to return to their school districts to teach elementary students about the dangers of smoking.

Attending from JHS were Gladys Lewellen and Matt Garner and their sponsors, Donna Lackey and Linda Hawkins, Home Ec teachers.

The Crusaders were armed with slides, literature, experiments, films and resource people to be utilized in their school programs.

London Duo Performs at JHS

Southern School Assemblies presented Linda and Martin Barry from London, England to the JHS student body on Tuesday, April 25.

The singing, joking duo was billed as, "a boy, a girl, a guitar, plus personality."

They performed a wide variety of music by various artists such as Mac Davis, Paul Simon, and the Bay City Rollers. In addition to this, Linda and Martin sang a variety of traditional Irish and Hebrew folk songs.

Linda began her career as a dancer in a London cabaret in 1969. Two years later she met Martin on a summer tour in Wales. A year later they married and formed the present act which has appeared on TV and radio in England, Wales, Malta, and the U.S.A.

The JHS concert was one of the last U.S. concerts the team will present. It concluded their fifth nine-month U.S. tour and Linda commented, "It's the last American tour. We're going back to England to do more TV and radio spots."

Beta Club

The Beta Club is a club which recognizes scholastic achievement and puts emphasis on leadership. The requirements for the Beta Club are a three point grade average or better and the student must be recommended by a teacher. Mr. Redd is the sponsoring teacher. Club officers are Michael Lewellen, vice-president; Luann Hester, secretary; Lori Shownes, treasurer.

Faculty and Administration Resignations

There were several mid-year changes at JHS due to faculty resignations and the hiring of new faculty members.

Assistant Superintendent, Charles Wilhite, was principal of JHS during the second semester following Mr. Bobby Hogue's resignation which was effective Jan. 31. Mr. Hogue said, "I don't regret changing jobs, the only thing I will miss is the association with the students."

Mr. Davis in the Science Department resigned at semester and was replaced by Mr. Jackie Whiteside.

Mr. Elbert Frazier in the Math Department resigned and his place was filled by Mrs. Burnett.

Mrs. Hawkins replaced Mrs. Sherman as tenth-grade counselor, and Miss Lorinzo took over Mrs. Hawkins' classes in the Home Ec Department.

Interact Club

Interact club is sponsored by the Rotary Club and JHS and is opened to anyone grades 9-12. The object of Interact is to encourage service to others. Sponsoring teachers are Mrs. Faught and Mrs. Parker. The club will try to meet twice a month and during the year members of the club will attend the Rotary Club meetings. Club officers are Mary Beth Boone, president; Lucy McKenzie, vice-president; Sammy Cox, secretary; Terri Beisner, treasurer; and Fran Adams, publicity chairman.

Jonesboro High Students In All-State

Despite a sudden snowfall that blanketed Arkansas with over four inches, the All-State Bands, Choir, and Orchestra were held on Feb. 16-18 on the campus of the University of Arkansas at Little Rock.

Eight JHS Band members participated in All-State: Mike Pettengell, Janet Horton, Jane Stanzell, and Cal Tarrant in the orchestra; Lisa Kissenger in the second band; Susan Burdyshaw, Cyndi Richardson, and John Blanchard in the first band.

The snowfall caused the series of final concerts to be moved up from 6:00 p.m. Saturday to 1:30 p.m.

Hurricane Choir members participating in the All-State Choir were Will Cate, Ricky McKinney, Harold Copenhaver, and Brad Snider.

58 JHS Students Make Senior Clinic

Jonesboro band had 58 students make Senior Clinic, held at Blytheville.

Senior Clinic tryouts were held at Nettleton after school this year because of the hazardous driving brought about by snow-covered roads. After trying out, the students were informed whether they made blue or red. Top chairs of blue band were selected to tryout in Conway for allstate. Jonesboro had 25 band members that were able to tryout.

In Blytheville, the students stayed in a local motel while the transportation was provided either by Blytheville or Newport buses. The bands rehearsed the music Tuesday night and Wednesday morning and gave a concert Wednesday afternoon which was held an hour earlier because of bad weather.

Science Dept. Offers Challenge

This year the JHS Science Department is offering Natural Science, Introduction to Physical Science (IPS), Plants and Shrubs, Biology, Advanced Biology, Physical Science, Chemistry, and Physics. All of these classes are chosen by the students as electives.

Natural Science and IPS are the only ninth grade science courses. To take these an adequate background in math is required.

Students enrolled in Physics and Chemistry should have completed Physical Science and Algebra II.

Mrs. Richmond's Plants and Shrubs class is learning to make dried flower arrangements from dried weeds, which according to Coach Davis, are very attractive.

The Advance Biology class is now dissecting cats. The complete dissection takes the class approximately nine weeks. The students study the muscles and digestion system and compare them to those of man since they are very much alike. To take Advance Biology a student needs a C average or better in biology.

According t o Coach Davis, the science faculty is very well qualified in their area. He stated that all of the science courses explore the physical aspect of the environment and that they are all lab classes, including both plants and animals. He also added that if the class seems difficult it is because they expect a lot from their students and they try to do a maximum amount of teaching and minimum amount of babysitting.

The Science Department has a small room with a glass wall for students to view the different specimen kept there. These include a boa constrictor snake and small mice raised for its food.

Scott Ferguson dissects a cat in Advanced Biology.

Ice and Snow Damage Streets And Highways

Jonesboro has been plagued by a cold white monster that has left its mark in the form of many large holes on streets and highways.

These holes are the result of melting snow and ice seeping in cracks and refreezing. This causes the pavement to break and split, eventually forming holes.

According to Jonesboro Mayor Neil Stallings, it is difficult to repair the holes in cold weather. However an attempt is being made to temporarily fill the holes with clay. This is not the best material to use but it is the most effective in winter weather. When the weather becomes warmer, the streets will be repaired with asphalt.

The actual extent of the damage will not be known until later when the ground below the street is completely thawed. Permanent repairs will not be attempted for about three months.

City Enginee Mike Cameron and the street crews poured 26.1 tons of salt on Jonesboro streets and highways. This salt did not do any real damage to streets but may have damaged many cars. The total cost of salt thus far is $1461.60.

Mayor Stallings stated that although this was a severe winter, there are no plans to buy new equipment since Jonesboro has never needed equipment for an average winter. "Snow equipment is to expensive to buy and we would just let it sit unused," said Stallings.

Firefall Pop Rock Group, Performs at ASU

The pop group Firefall performed in concert April 27 at Indian Fieldhouse for a capacity crowd.

The group played their recent hit "How Can I Tell I Love You" along with other material including their debut single last year, "You Are the Woman."

The music mainly focused on by the group is mellow country-rock style comparable to THE EAGLES or AMERICA. This is the first of two spring concerts put on by the SGA at Indian Fieldhouse. Next month they will present Andrae Crouch, a well-known gospel player who has had sell-out crowds in a number of concert halls and auditoriums including Carnegie Hall.

Student Designs New Magic Act

Most people have a hobby of some kind, but very few people get paid for practicing their hobby. Ed Underwood, a sophomore at JHS, is an exception to that rule. Ed has been interested in magic since he was 10. He is a member of the Society of American Magicians. The SAM is for people who are interested magic and it helps its members to meet other people with the common interest.

"I became interested magic from watching TV," stated Ed. "About 2 years after that I started reading books and trying some things. A friend of ming told me about SAM which I joined three years ago while living in Memphis. Ed has performed several shows for various organizations, the most recent of which was at the Country Club. In this show Ed along with Dave Christiano, a student at ASU who Ed met through SAM, performed illusions, hand tricks, and various other magical feats.

Jonesboro streets suffered heavy damage during recent bad weather.

Old Strand Becomes Forum

"It's going to be simple but elegant. I really like it," commented Rusty Garner, director of the Forum.

The Forum is the name that has been given to the new civic center now under contruction. The center will be housed in the old Strand Theatre building. The building is being completely remodeled, both exterior and interior. When finished, it will seat 700 people.

The Forum is in the exact center of downtown, with parking spaces for 1000 cars in a two block radius. These two facts contribute to making the Forum in a very good location.

Jonesboro is the largest city in Arkansas without some type of a place to hold plays, conventions, etc. The only place that Jonesboro has of this sort is Wilson's Auditorium. This auditorium is part of the university and was really not originally intended for the general public,

The Forum will cost about $520,000. It is being partly funded by an Economic Developmental Administration fund. The remaining cost is being paid by the city of Jonesboro.

David Bowie Rocks Memphis

Friday, April 14, was the night that David Bowie rocked the city of Memphis. His return was a shock to the near sell-out crowd. He performed such arrangements as cuts off his latest albums, "Heroes" and "Low" and also stuck to the traditional Bowie we all know with such songs as "Jean Genie," "Rebel Rebel," and "Fame."

The highlight of the concert was a selection of songs performed off his Ziggy Stardust album with hits such as "Suffragette City" and "Hang on to Yourself". The crowd responded with a standing ovation throughout the set.

Featured as David's new lead guitar player, Adrien Fischer added a punkish yet quite influential addition to the band. Unlike previous tours, Bowie is now adding his talent to the instrumental portion of the show, with a melletron string ensemble. David's talent at playing the instrument gave an excellent arrangement.

With his encores "TVC 15" and "Rebel Rebel" David Bowie closed his Memphis showing of his 1978 World Tour. All in all it was a big success.

Construction is taking place to renew the old Strand Theatre in Downtown Jonesboro.

Shooting The Crossbow

Debbie Linam is active in many sports. One of her favorite is shooting the crossbow. Debbie is a senior and plays on the girls' basketball team.

"I started shooting the crossbow when I was 14. A year later I began competing," says Debbie.

The national meet takes place in Huntsville, Ar. at the Withrow Springs State Park.

"I took second place in the rapid fire and third place in the slow fire. I also received a first place in the slow fire when I was 16," Debbie said.

If you are unfamiliar with the crossbow, it was the French who invented it for hunting. A crossbow is a short, stiff bow mounted on a stock that can shoot a seven to fifteen inch arrow by squeezing a trigger.

Debbie described the competition in the slow fire as when you shoot 25 arrows at 25 yards away, taking your time. The target has a 24-inch face and is two feet across.

The top five winners of the slow fire go on to compete in the rapid fire. The rapid fire is similar to the slow fire except you are limited to two and a half minutes shooting time.

Another event is called the American Round. In this event, you use a single shot bow at 60, 50, and 40 yards shooting distance, shooting 30 arrows at each distance.

The biggest event consists of the three top shooters. Both men and women compete at a distance of 40 yards, shooting six arrows at six bull's eyes. This is called the King's Round.

Debbie has never qualified for the King's Round but she is very optimistic about her future.

JHS Celebrates Summer

The summer passed with a blink of the eye for it seemed to be shorter than ever before. Most students kept themselves busy with family vacations, summer jobs, and trips to the lakes on weekends. Although summer was enjoyed by everyone, the majority of the JHS student body was enthusiastic about returning to "The Hill" for the new school year. Summer comments from a few students were: Charlotte Warhurst—"I went to band camp, skiing at the lake, and on a vacation to Florida." Luann Hester—"I worked at Marcelle's, the Skating Rink and I also went to the lake a lot." Clara Cossey—"Last summer, I went to church camp in DeQueen, Arkansas." Judy Steinegger—"I went to Minnesota, Band Camp, Opryland, and I skateboarded while I was at home." David Cossey—"I really enjoyed my summer, but was glad to get back in school since this is my senior year."

Students Enjoy Fall

Fall was a season of adjustments for JHS students after being out of school during the summer, but they jumped back into the old routine quickly as they got involved in the old fall activities, such as football games, pep rallies, and joining clubs.

Fall activities which were celebrated were the Craighead County Fair, Halloween, Thanksgiving and, as always, Homecoming.

1. A group of Jonesboro High sophomores and juniors cheer the football team and the 1977-1978 Homecoming Royalty on during the Homecoming Pep Rally.
2. MARTY Bennett looks for someone open while Barry King keeps an eye out for the other guys in an exciting Hurricane football game.

Winter Months Are Busy

Winter months were busy months for most of Jonesboro High's students. The Junior Class Play kicked-off the season and the winter sports included basketball for both girls and guys and girls' volleyball.

There were many winter activities such as the FCA vs. JHS faculty volleyball game, the Hurricane Ball, the Miss Hurricane Pageant, and many club activities. The seniors ordered T-shirts with the names of the class members on them, the Interact Club sold school penants, and the FBLA, BIC, and Beta clubs sold candy for money-making projects.

School was dismissed for ten days due to bad weather conditions and students took advantage of the snow by enjoying sledding and other snow activites.

There was a change in the JHS faculty during the winter. There were four new teachers the second semester, along with a new principal, Mr. Charles Willhite, and a new vice-principal, Dr. J.W. Mason.

1. JAMES McCauley blocks a pass between two Marianna Trojans. 2. MIKE Dailey jumps for the ball in the FCA vs. faculty volleyball game. 3. SNOW covered Jonesboro's streets several weeks during the winter.

Sleeveless Shirts Replace Coats

Spring was a nice change for the JHS students after the cold snowy winter. When spring came, the students got out their shorts and sleeveless shirts to get their tans for the coming summer.

The season was filled with many busy activities for the students. It included tennis, track, gymnastics, and golf for sports.

The Beta Club held their Induction for new members and the Fashion Merchandising class went to Market in Memphis. The French club went to France during the week which was planned to be Spring Break, and the FBLA and Student Council attended state conventions in the spring.

As usual, spring was busy for the seniors. There was the Jr.-Sr. Prom, Senior Skip Day, the mailing of announcements, and of course, Graduation, to end the spring season.

1. A rose blooms, indicating the arrival of spring. 2. SPRING brings out the creativity of art students as Rob Drum, assisted by student teacher Mrs. Templeton, puts his footprint on the storage cabinets students are decorating. 3. MICHAEL Lewellen and fellow club member prepare for a spring Beta Club meeting.

AFTER HOURS

After a hard day of school is completed, comes the time to do as you please, to do the things you enjoy doing most, whatever they may be.

Some JHS students have part-time jobs to occupy their time and to make a little extra money. Other students have a lot of free time to simply run around. Some students instead of running around enjoy staying at home; growing plants, cooking a meal, sewing, collecting stamps, or even just spending the evenings at home.

Most JHS students enjoy getting together and eating out at Pizza Inn or McDonald's. They enjoy going to dances, parties and social gatherings, and some enjoy a quiet evening at the movies with a friend.

On Sunday afternoons some JHS students can always be found on Nettleton, sitting in their cars on the parking lots, and meeting with other friends to enjoy an afternoon of fun.

1. CHARLOTTE Warhust and Darla Berry spend many hours growing plants. 2. KEVIN Pagan enjoys talking to other people on the Ham Radio 3. VALERIE Lingle takes much joy in macrame. 4. DeANNE Underwood spends the evenings in sewing. 5. CLEL Jones proudly shows his art display. 6. MARGARET Scott, chef of the house? 7. JILL Steinegger's favorite past-time is collecting stamps.

STUDENTS' MINDS WORK OVERTIME

"I work at City Drugs to save money to go on the trip to Europe with the Hurricane Choir," said Junior Dan Phillians when asked why he works.

Many JHS students have after school jobs. Some students go to work right after school while others do not go until that afternoon . Most of the students are working in places that will help them later on with their career, while others are working to save for something special or just to have money.

In order to have an after school job you should be able to keep your grades up and be willing to sacrifice a few things you would otherwise be participating in, such as a football or basketball game, or a party.

Senior Cindy Foster said that she works after school to get secretarial experience.

SEVERAL JHS students were asked what they did while working after school and these were their answers. 1. "I enjoy working at Clement's," comments Fran Adams. "I like to help people choose jewelry that goes with their particular lifestyle." 2. "DIPPING ice cream and frying doughnuts is usually what I'm doing at Burtons," replied John Gosset. 3. "My main job at Gene Stimpsons is racking bottles but sometimes I load and unload trucks," says sophomore Randy Bradly. 4. "I'M in charge of the cattle at ASU," explained Ricky Burge and went on to say "mostly I have to feed, vaccinate, and make sure the cows con't have calving problems." 5. EDDIE Underwood answered by saying, "Being a magician I work at different places. I usually do shows for clubs and variety shows." 6. CHUCK Keller enjoys working at T-Shirts Etc. because "I like to see what different prople like to wear on their shirts." 7. JUNIOR Willie Lasley shows what's cooking at McDonalds.

Key Club Sponsors First Sweetheart Pageant

Thirteen girls competed in the Key Club's first Sweetheart Pageant held in the JHS Theater October 25.

Dede Turner, junior, won the Miss Sweetheart title, with Jodie Taylor, junior; Karen Cron, senior; and Vanessa Brown, sophomore; as the respective runners up.

Other contestants were seniors Carla Owen, Bobbi Bennett, Joan Hafner, Jill Schroeder, Ann O'Dell and Jenny Rutherford; juniors Sandra Lindley and Trudy Purvis; sophomores Lisa Turner and Sylvia Byrne.

The girls were judged on talent, beauty, and personality.

1. PART of the contestants were Dede Turner, Vanessa Brown, Jodie Taylor, Jenny Rutherford, Trudy Purvis, back row; Sylvia Byrne, Joan Hafner, Ann O'Dell, and Sandra Lindley, front row. 2. CARLA Owen sings a country song for her talent presentation. 3. Displaying her talent in a Hungarian Folk Dance, choreographed by herself, is Karen Cron. 4. KEY Club Sweetheart Dede Turner walks across the stage in her formal.

"Meet Me in St. Louis" Receives Warm Response

A turn of the century St. Louis home was the setting of the three act comedy, "Meet Me In St. Louis." The play, under the direction of Mr. Johnny Redd and Miss Terry Vest and sponsored by the Beta Club, was presented March 9, 10, and 11 in the JHS Theater.

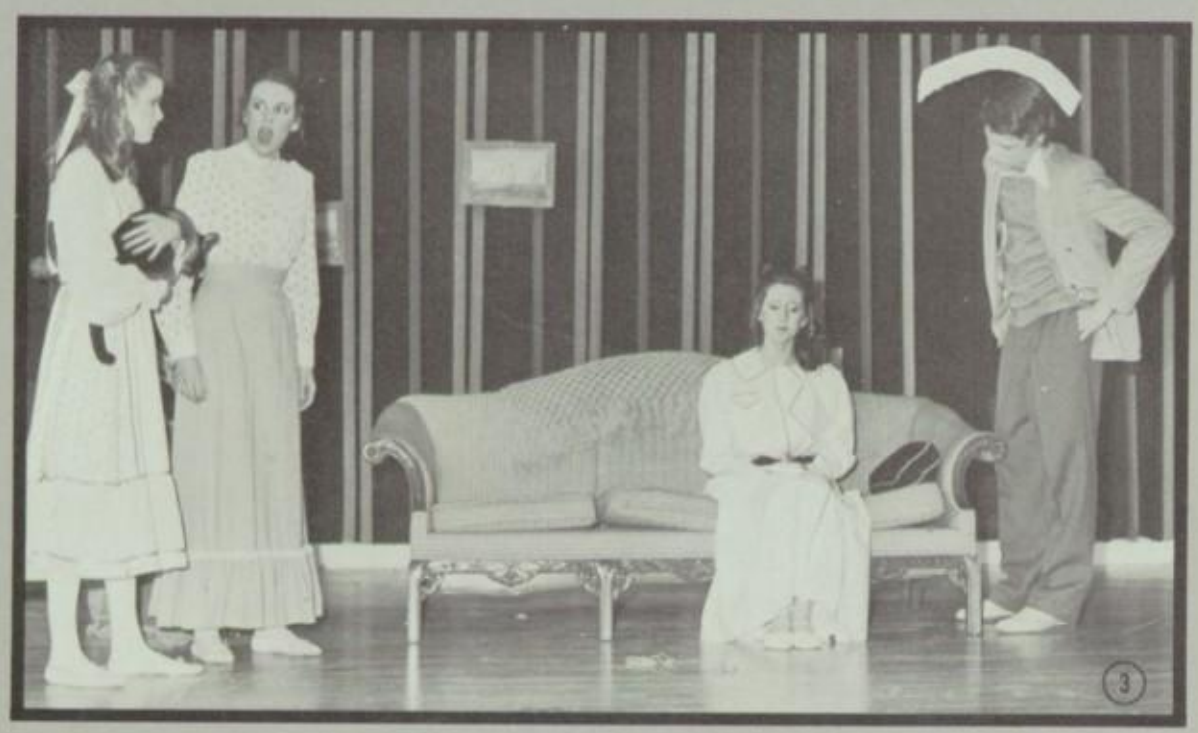
The action was centered around the middle class family of Lon Smith in the spring of 1904.

In the first act the audience was introduced to Mr. Smith and his wife (Brad Snider and Karen Cron) and their five children (Bill Leech, Jodi Taylor, Becky Grace, Libby Riggs, and Becky Chaney). Mr. Smith was confronted with the problem of telling his wife that he had been transferred to New York and the family would have to move. This is when Mr. Smith's problems really begin. The mischievous children refused to move, until a little fatherly advice changed their minds temporarily.

The second act developed the girls' plot to show Mr. Smith's boss that he can't even handle his own family, so he surely can't handle the New York job. Here the audience witnessed the romances and problems that caused the children not to want to go, such as the beginning of the World's Fair in St. Louis. The act culminated when the girls' plan backfired and Mr. Dodge (Kevin Pagan) fired Mr. Smith from his job.

The beginning of the third act showed the bleak outlook for the Smith family. Their lack of finances forced them to consider even dismissing their cheery maid and cook (Mary McCauley). Just as Mr. Smith was at his lowest depression, Mr. Dodge returned to give his job back to him. It seemed that the company could not run without him, so he was rehired at twice his original salary and kept in St. Louis.

Other members of the cast included: John Fiala (grandfather), Scott Gibson (John Sheppard), Margie Chaney (Lucille Pentard), Melissa Howerton (Ida Boothby), Todd Donahue (Fred Gregory), Sandra Lindley (Mrs. Waughop), Roger DeRoeck (Duffy), and James McNiel (the conductor).



1. MR. Dodge (Kevin Pagan) scolds Mr. Smith for his children's pranks as Esther (Becky Grace) looks on with delight. 2. ROSE (Jodi Taylor) explains to John (Scott Gibson) that their romance could come to an end with the family's move to New York. 3. LUCILLE (Margie Chaney) upsets the Smith family with her affectionate antics toward the sister's beaus.

Girls Set the Trap

JHS Student Council sponsored the Sadie Hawkins Dance, Feb. 25 in Hurricane Gym from 8:00 till 12:00. The music was provided by the group "Chance." This dance gave the girls a chance to ask the guys for a date. At the dance pictures were taken of the couples and Michael Lewellen was "Marrying Sam" who performed wedding ceremonies.

Sadie Hawkins Day was invented by Dogpatch cartoonist Al Capp as a day for unmarried women to pursue the bachelor of their choice.

1. DEBRA Passmore and Barry Lawsheare joined in matrimony by Michael Lewellen, Marrying Sam. 2. MARRYING Sam marries Elaine Bosche and Scott Simpson. 3. LANNY Grissom and Diane Childress take a break from dancing. 4. SENIORS Annette Roberts and Chris Munos are also married at the dance. 5. BETH Ashcraft, Mark Hayes, and Karen Cron clown around during the Sadie Hawkins Dance. 6. SCOTT Gibson and Sherry Flanningan on the dance floor! 7. KIM Byrd and Mark Vaughn are obviously enjoying themselves.

Grand Slam Highlights Prom

On April 29, one of the largest events of the school year was celebrated, the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme, "A Night in the Old South", was effectively carried out with streamers of pink, yellow, and blue hung from the rafters and a mirror ball in the center of the ceiling. The setting for the pictures was a bamboo chair, lined with a trellis on either side of the chair. The chair was sat upon artificial turf. Two light blue canvas flats hung behind the bamboo chair served as the background. During the Senior Grand March, the couples passed beneath a floral arch.

Music for the Prom was provided by a five member band from Memphis, Grand Slam. The five instruments played were the keyboard, bass guitar, lead guitar, drums, and saxophone. The band used special effects such as lighting and a fireshooter. They played disco, rock & roll, along with a few slow songs.

1. JIM Osment and Cindy Hogue dance to the music of Grand Slam. 2. GRAND Slam performs during the Prom. 3. CHERYL McMullen and her date enjoy the music. 4. BRAD Bramlett, James Cooper, Tina Clairiday, and Tricia Owen eat at The Filling Station before the Prom. 5. MATT Garner and Jeff Boling decorate the gym for the Prom. 6. TODD Williams observes the action of the night.

Senior Skip Day is a day observed by all JHS seniors one Friday near the end of the school year. Although there was many conflicts this year as to what day most seniors got away one of the two days planned. Lake Norfork was the scene for most of the seniors for Senior Skip Day. This was a day to relax and have fun during the last few days of "seniorhood." At the lake, swimming, boating, and skiing were enjoyed. Some of the seniors rented cabins, stayed at hotel, or just camped out.

Some seniors students went to Spring River, other lakes, to Memphis, or elsewhere. After their fun-filled weekend they all came back refreshed and ready to finish up the last of their BIG YEAR.

1. MARK Poe prepares the breakfast as fast as the boys can eat it. 2. JILL Schroeder enjoyes herself by skiing on the day she took as her skip day. 3. MARK Wood, John Aycock, Mike Dailey, Scot Snodgrass, Tony Busby, and Bruce Gartman take a minute to pose for the photographer at Lake Norfork. 4. A group of senior boys can work up a little smile after an enjoyable day out on the lake. 5. BRUCE Gartman shows his skiing ability while at the lake. 6. JOHN Aycock seems to be a showout on skis.

Sophomore, Vanessa Brown, was selected Miss Hurricane for 1978. The pageant, sponsored by the Annual Staff, was held December 10 in the JHS Auditorium.

Runnerups were Kim Ivy, first; Jodi Taylor, second; Jennifer Green, third; and Karen Cron, fourth. These girls were chosen from among 20 girls. Judges for the evening were Gloria Williams, a student teacher at Gosnell Public Schools; Bob Williams, from Mississippi County Community College; and Kathy Malone from Bay Public Schools. The emcees were Beth Ashcraft, 1977 Miss Hurricane, and Becky Reginelli, a former Miss Jonesboro. A dinner was held at Sirloin Stockade for the emcees and the judges. The girls met with the judges for desert at the home of Nancy Pryor.

The theme for the pageant was "Beauties in Paradise," and the set was constructed by the theatre work-shop classes.

At the pageant, the girls first appeared in their casual outfits, then in evening dresses. The emcees then asked them questions and talked with them on stage for a few minutes. A craft project was required for all the girls.

Entertainment was provided by the Barshop Quartet.

Other contestants included: Ann O'Dell, Bobbie Bennett, Lynne Wolfe, Lynda Gail Turner, Kelli Johnson, Trudy Purvis, Cara Courter, Adele Little, Jennifer Bell , Sandra Lindley, Lisa Turner, Cindy Peely, and Paige Grisham.

CELEBRATE SPORTS

Hurricanes Are Off And Running

Pre-season polls suggested that the Hurricane would be a strong, well-balanced ball club. A tenacious defense combined with an unheard of Hurricane offense capable of breaking a game wide open.

The Golden Gang has been known for its tough defense year after year and this year sported a mainly senior trench and linebacking crew. Five seniors and two juniors played the bulk of the time. Ronnie Smith, Mark Vaughn, James Cooper, and Tommy Walker played on the inside. Kevin Shatley played weakside linebacker, Randy Wheeler played strongside linebacker, while Randy Roebuck held down the center with the middle linebacker position.

Benny McGinnis and Tim Hines had right and left corner positions respectively, while Greg Peters was strong safety and Mike Dailey played free safety.

Brad Snider and Ronnie Andrews supplied the majority of the Gang's ground game with much help from Brian Prunty and Steve Hales. Marty Bennett executed the option play to perfection, tucking and gaining the tough yards inside or pitching at the precise moment to the feisty Brad Snider. In the first game of the season, Snider ripped off a run to the left side out, running the Poplar Bluff defense to the end zone.

FROSH AND SOPHS EXCEL

The Sophomore Hurricane team ended their season 2-4. Despite convincing wins over Pocahontas and Blytheville, the Sophs found conference play difficult. They lost once to Forrest City, once to Blytheville and twice to West Memphis.

In their season opener, West Memphis turned the Hurricane away 27-0. Blytheville snuck by 13-0. The Hurricane then found the combination as they beat Pocahontas 26-6 and Blytheville 20-14. They ended their season with two losses, West Memphis 6-0 and Firrest City 7-0.

Sophomores who contributed to the varsity effect were Ed Trout, Brian Prunty, and Bubba Carter, each of whom have started or played quite a bit. Mike Morgon became back-up varsity quarterback.

The Freshman team won three, lost three and tied one while combined as one team. The up and down Freshmen put red on the points against Batesville and Pocahontas but were unable to put more than six points on the board in every other contest. The Freshman team beat Blythville 6-0, Batesville 23-6 and Poncahontas 26-0, while loosing to Newport 6-8, and Osceola 6-14. They also tied Marianna 0-0.

GANG GRABS CONF TITLE

The Golden Gand finished as conference co-champs of the AAAA-East Region. Jonesboro completely dominated early conference play with a 2-0 record and had the upper hand. A 7-6 win over West Memphis and a 9-6 home victory over Marianna supplied the early victories.

Blytheville played the spoiler role as they were the only blemish on Jonesboro's conference slate. Blytheville's only loss came to Forrest City. Blytheville upset JHS 21-14 enroute to a conference camp berth in the state.

Jonesboro was up against the ropes, each game was a do or die situation. With a 2-1 record and new rules we had a chance for a co-championship if we could beat Forrest City and Helena by 13 points.

Jonesboro came out fired up and beat Forrest City 20-7 completely overshelming the favored Mavericks in every phase of the game.

The Hurricanes next test was against a tough Helena team, the gangs fire lasted the first half as JHS jumped out to a quick 13-0 lead. Everything was right.

Gang Finishes 6-4

The Jonesboro Hurricane football team finished the regular season at 6-4 before losing to Benton, the eventual state champions, in the first round of the state playoffs. Jonesboro played as tough a schedule as anyone around with non-conference games against powerful teams like Ole Main, Jacksonville, Conway, Osceola, and Popular Bluff, Mo.

Special teams for the gang played a big part in the Golden Gang's success this year. Bruce Gartman and Barry King with their golden feet punted and place kicked, respectively on the Hurricane special teams. Mike Dailey and Randy Roebuck continually made things click on defense, along with Randy Wheeler and Kevin Shatley.

1. RANDY Roebuck (55) and Tim Thrasher (40) pull down a lone runner. 1. STEVE Hales came on in the end of the season and helped the JHS conference race,where he gets a "bloody block" from John Aycock (12). 3. BARRY King kicks one up and through against Poplar Bluff. Scott Wilhite (11) holds the ball. 4. MIKE Dailey (26) attempts an interception against Forrest City. Dailey set a new JHS interception record. 5. MARTY Bennett attempts to stay on his feet at a home game. 6. THE Hurricane defense swarms a West Memphis runner. Jonesboro won this conference game 7-6.

Gang Goes To State

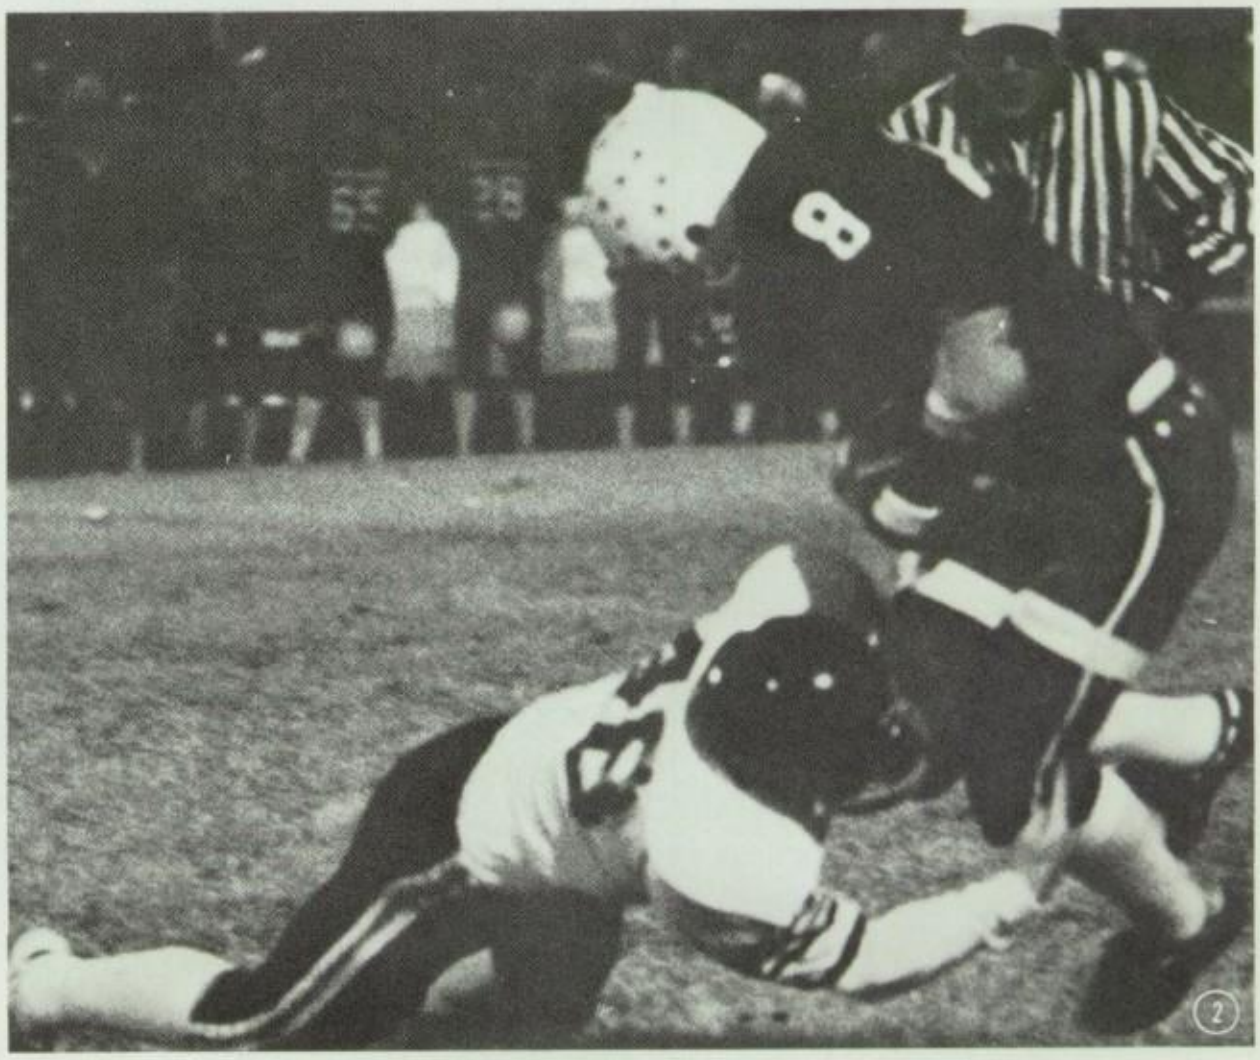
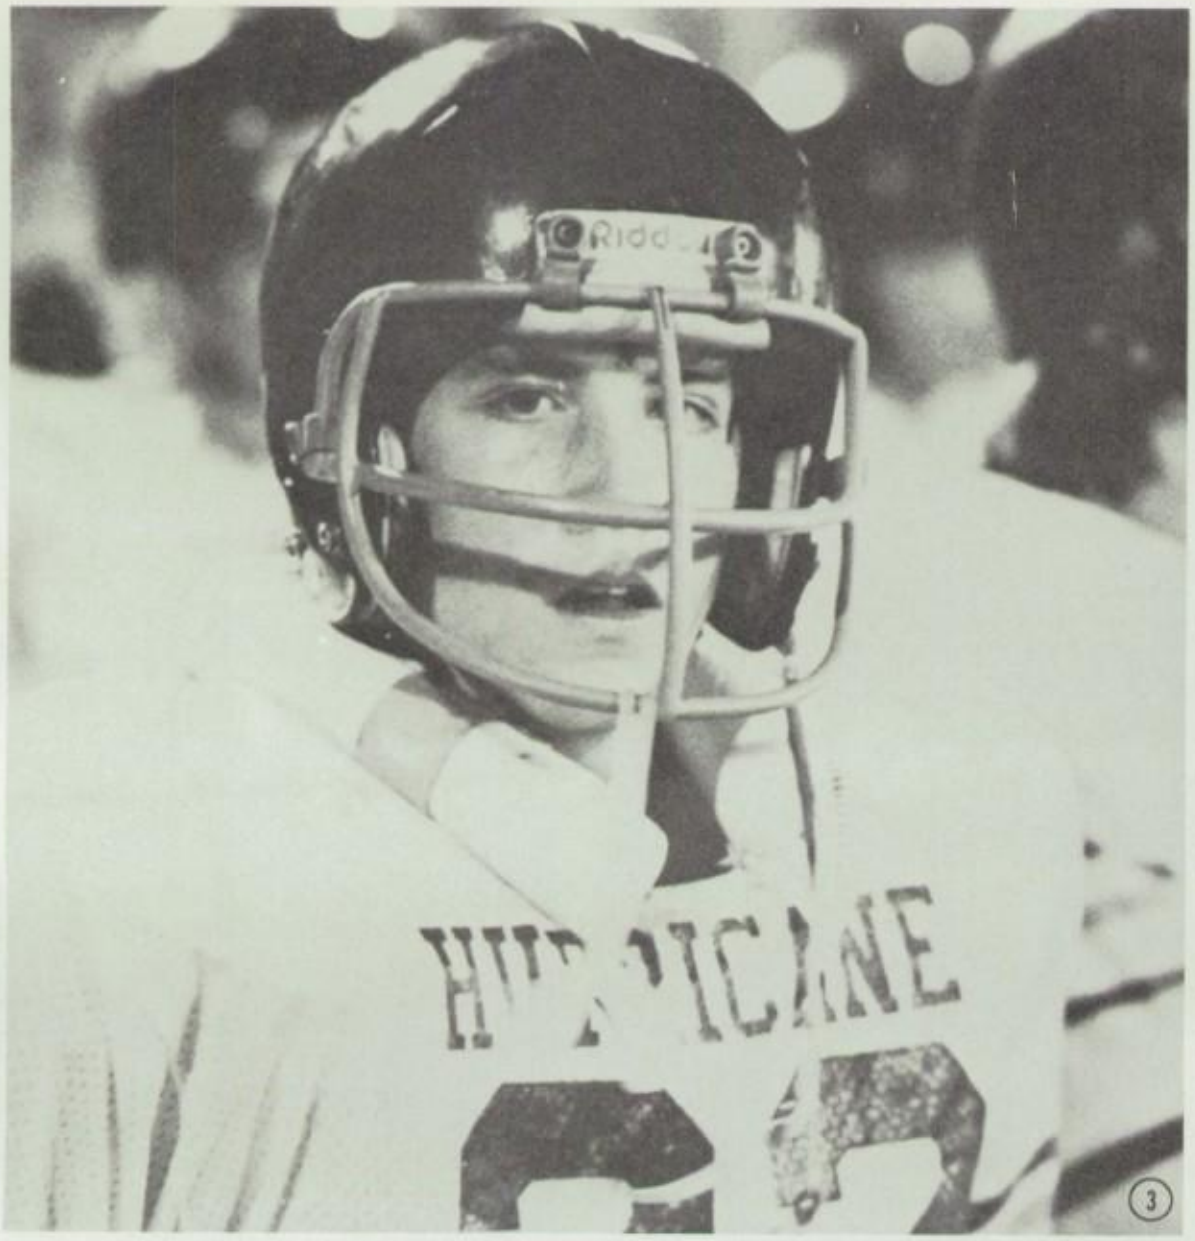
Jonesboro marches down to Benton for the state playoffs, only to face the toughest team in the state. Benton sported an explosive offense and a running back heavily recruited by the University of Arkansas, Jeff Goff. JHS played Benton a close game for the most part with scores for Benton coming on quick long runs. The game was much closer than the 28-0 score depicts.

Ronnie Smith and Randy Wheeler, the un-heralded defensive end and linebacker for the gang, had their usual good games. Smith and Wheeler seniors, seeing their last of action in high school are good bets for all conference awards.

Mark Vaughn, the biggest Hurricane degensive lineman, also had a good game. Vaughn, also a senior, and the rest of the line was up against some of the toughest competition they had yet faced.

JHS lost many great seniors at the close of the season but a bulk of juniors returned for starting positions and also form a foundation to build next year's squad on. Many coaches express great optimism about the outlook for next year's team.





1. STEVE Hales (25) goes up in a crowd for a pass 2. GENTON'S Rick Spivy (8) is taken down by Benny McGinnis (48). 3. TIM Hynes expresses just a little of the gang's disappointment at Benton. 4. MARTY Bennett scrambles at Benton. 5. BRAD Snider (21) tries to turn the corner against the tough Benton defense. Benton's defense seemed to cause the Hurricane offense to make its own mistakes. Snider was held in check by the Panther defense.

Wilhite was hurt for the majority of the year with a broken finger. Wilhite was a back-up quarterback and holder for field goals.

GIRLS IMPROVE DURING SEASON

The Jonesboro High School Girls' Basketball team had an up and down season. For a two-year-old team, they did quite well and improved over last year. Coach Rosemary Ward expressed optimism about the success of the program thus far. She also said that the lack of student involvement hurt the team a great deal.

The freshmen girls also proved they could be victorious by winning all but two of their games after Coach Steve Baker took over halfway through the season. The freshmen made it to the region tournament, but were eliminated in a close game by number one seeded West Memphis.

The Jonesboro Freshman Basketball squad showed many signs of promise in the coming years with their play during this year. The tough Tri-City conference took its toll on the freshman Hurricane record. Brad Broadway, Doug Falls, Paul Bookout, Richard Wyatt, and Jamie Taylor drew the load the majority of the time with super-subs Billy Caldwell and Joe Lee. The Freshman squad experienced difficulty in coping with the size of most of the conference teams. Many of the coaches expressed optimism about next year's ninth grade Hurricanes.

GANG HAS POTENTIAL

When the Hurricanes came back to school and started the 1977-78 season they showed a lot of promise although they were without two all-state performers. The players came back and started working hard to get ready for their opener.

As the long-awaited day drew near, some of the players found themselves in the stands rather than on the court. Despite these misfortunes, when Osceola came to town for the opener, everything seemed right, but the Hurricanes could not get it together and got beat 63-34.

When all the dust had cleared five days later, the Gang found themselves 0-4. This all seemed disastrous, until you stop and think that they lost to Osceola, Pine Bluff, Memphis Melrose, and Little Rock Parkview, perhaps the toughest competitors on the Gang's schedule.

HURRICANES ON THE GO

After the Hurricanes got off to their bad start of 0-4, they found themselves with even fewer players. This created some problems. First of all, Coach Mike Dungan, who had to play inexperienced players at the beginning of the season, had to play even more inexperienced players. Secondly, there was a big problem concerning depth.

The Golden Gang then played Greene County Tech. After getting off to a sluggish start the Gang got together and defeated the Eagles. It was then back to Osceola to try to revenge an earlier loss. After staying with them at the first, the more physical Osceola team wore down the Hurricanes.

BIG MEN COME ALIVE

The Hurricanes now sporting a 1-5 record came home and beat Trumann. This was the first time the Hurricanes used their size to wear down an opponent and dominate the inside game.

The Golden Gang then traveled to Poplar Bluff to play against ex-teammate Lex Drum. The Hurricanes, now looking like the team many thought they would be, defeated the Mules with once again the inside punch of 6'8" Jeff Bolding, 6'7" Rob Drum and 6'3" Matt Garner and with the clutch free-throw shooting of John Aycock.

Drum, the rapidly maturing sophomore, sat out the next game with Little Rock McClellan and senior Harold Wilson took his place. The Gang defeated the Little Rock team behind the hot hand of Matt Garner who poured in 33 points and with Jeff Bolding's 16 points and 10 rebounds.

GANG GETS HOT

After a tough loss to Greene County Tech in the NEA Tournament, the Hurricanes went into conference play with a 4-6 record.

West Memphis, pre-season pick as a contender for the conference title and recent winner of the NEA Tournament, stood first in the Hurricanes' way. Next in line after a conference break with Wynne, the Hurricanes took the bags down to Helena for a snow-bound contest against a tough Helena Cougar team.

After the smoke had cleared, Jonesboro was supporting a 7-6 record and a 2-0 league, leading record in conference play.

JUNIOR Jeff Bolding drives the lane and beats his opponent for an easy bucket. 4. MATT Garner puts up a jumpshot over the Poplar Bluff defense. 5. MARTY Bennett gets squeezed in by two Blytheville players but still manages to get to a teammate.

TEAM MAKES MOVE

After having a game postponed because of snow with Forrest City, the Hurricanes went to tangle with West Memphis. Matt Garner, who probably had his best game of the year by scoring 35 points, missed a layup on a controversial call with time running out, which would have given the Hurricanes their third straight conference win. After beating Greene County Tech for the second time, the Gang split two close games with Blytheville. They then went on to defeat the Trojans of Marianna on the road.

1. MATT Garner reaches high for a rebound against a Blytheville player. 2. ROB Drum throws up a shot between three Blytheville defenders. 3. JAMES McCauley patiently waits for a teammate to get open. 4. MATT Garner shows his form by firing up a jumper from the corner.

Now supporting a 10-8 record and winning 9 of their last 12, the Hurricanes faced a stiff challenge from the Forrest City Mustangs. The Gang once again wound up on the wrong end as they got beat by 10 points.

To stay in the thick of the conference race Jonesboro impressively defeated Marianna and Helena at home.

Then came the game of truth. If the Hurricanes won they would be assured of a state playoff spot, but if they lost the worst they could do was to get a flip. As it turned out Forrest City beat Jonesboro and Blytheville, winning the conference. So now Jonesboro and Forrest City would have to flip for the other berth, right. Wrong! Forrest City somehow took matters into their own hands and got into the playoffs without a coin flip. So Jonesboro's 12-10 up and down season ended on an unfortunate down.

GIRLS CAPTURE FOURTH IN STATE

The JHS girls volleyball team competed in the state Class AA tournament at North LIttle Rock Northeast High School, Nov. 2 and 3. Jonesboro was one of about twenty-five teams to compete in the double elimination tournament.

Jonesboro got a bye in the first round and beat Little Rock Central in the second round. The Hurricanes then advanced to the third round and beat Russeville. Next, the girls tangled with Helena and wound up on the wrong end as the Cougars sent Jonesboro to the losers bracket. Jonesboro then beat Little Rock Parkview, lost to North Little Rock Northeast, and was eliminated from the tournament.

Sylvan Hills ended up winning the tournament, with North Little Rock Northeast finishing second, West Helena finishing third, and Jonesboro winding up fourth.

Jonesboro High School Cross Country Coach Steve Ewart says he was "extremely pleased" with the showing of the Hurricane in the state cross country championships.

Jonesboro finished eighth in the competition, in which all classification of schools competed together. "We placed higher than several AAAAA teams and were the highest finishers among the AAAA-East school" Ewart said.

Roger DeRoeck placed seventh for the Hurricane's best performance, covering the two and one-half mile distance in 13:52. Teammate Matt Garner was right behind with a 13:56 time.

Also competing for JHS were Todd Williams, Kevin Pagan, Ralph Waddell, Joe Burns, and Glenn

Girls End Successfully

The 1978 Girls' Track Team came on strong at the end of the year to finish with a very respectable season. The girls went to the region tournament not knowing what to expect. After doing fairly good they found that they could compete with the rest of the region and wind up close to the top. Several of the team members went on and did well in the state tournament.

TEAM SHOWS DEDICATION

The 1978 Hurricane Track Team made a strong showing for itself by taking first place in the Hurricane Relays and finishing fourth in the region. Practice began in early February this year and continued throughout the season with true team effort. Head Coach Steve Ewart stressed the importance of a team effort and not just individual performances. Each practice as well as each competition began with a team stretching and group meeting.

1. COACH Steve Ewart takes time out for a team meeting. 2. MIKE Dailey goes up on his way to clearing the high jump bar. 3. TONY Busby gets ready to release the shot put. 4. # TRACKERS PLACE FOURTH

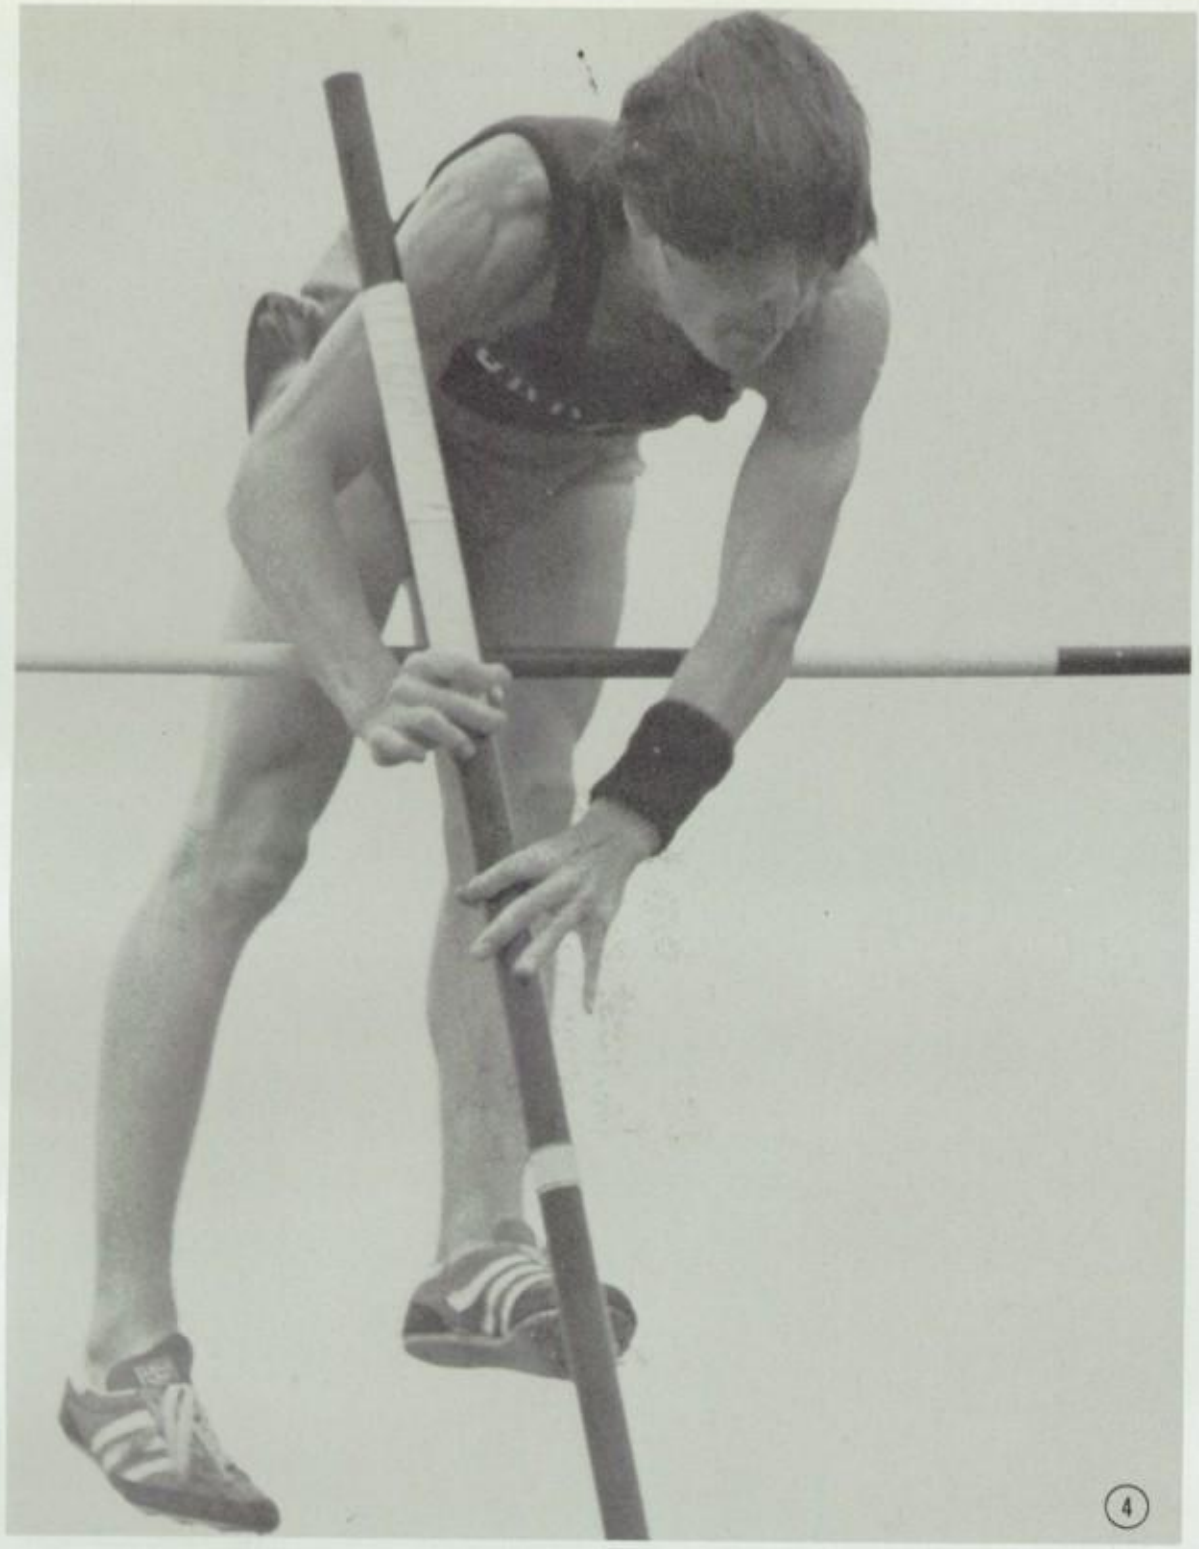
While the Hurricanes performed well as a group, several outstanding individuals performed well to lead the team. Distance man Roger DeRoeck consistently took honors in his events, the mile and two mile. Eight hundred eighty man Matt Garner ran very well and in his second event, the high jump, he set a new school mark. Junior Barry Lawshe paced the Hurricanes' high flying trio in the pole vault with a personal best of 13'7". Mike Primm and Mike Nelson both sophomores followed close behind at 13'6". Sophomore Terry Turnage ran well in the hurdle events and placed second in the region in the long jump with the longest effort of the year, 21'6". Junior Berry King came on near the end to aid senior Tony Busby in the weight events. King placed third in both the shot and discus in the regional while Busby and King placed fourth and fifth respectfully in the state shot put competition. The seniors on the Hurricane Track Team went out winners and a fantastic group of underclassmen were left behind to carry on as real winners.



1. SCOTT Lemons smoothly glides over the hurdle. 2. JOEY George prepares to hand the baton off to Marty Bennett. 3. BRAD Snider keeps warm as he practices on his hurdle event. 4. MIKE Primm easily clears the bar in his pole-vaulting event. 5 TERRY Turnage clears the hurdle as he gets ready to pass the leader. 6. The Hurricane Girls' Tennis Team led by lone senior Diana Burleson went undefeated throughout the entire regular season.

The JHS girls also dominated their division by capturing both first and second places in the singles and doubles competition of the tourney.

Sophomore Leigh Martin defeated teammate Diana Burleson in the finals 6-2, 6-5 and the team of Margie Morse and Rene Townsley came back after losing the first set to defeat the team of Margaret Cooper and Lee Anne Leech 3-6, 6-4, 6-3.

Burleson, Martin, Cooper, Leech, Morse, and Townsley all qualified for the state.

1. FRESHMAN Lee Anne Leech follows through as she returns a serve. 2. RENE Townsley looks ahead as she prepares to hit the ball. 3. MARGARET Cooper follows through as she smashes a serve. 4. MARGIE Morse gets ready to throw the ball up before she serves it. 5. LEIGH Martin, winner of the AAAA-east region, gets ready to return a shot during practice.

Boys Dominate Region

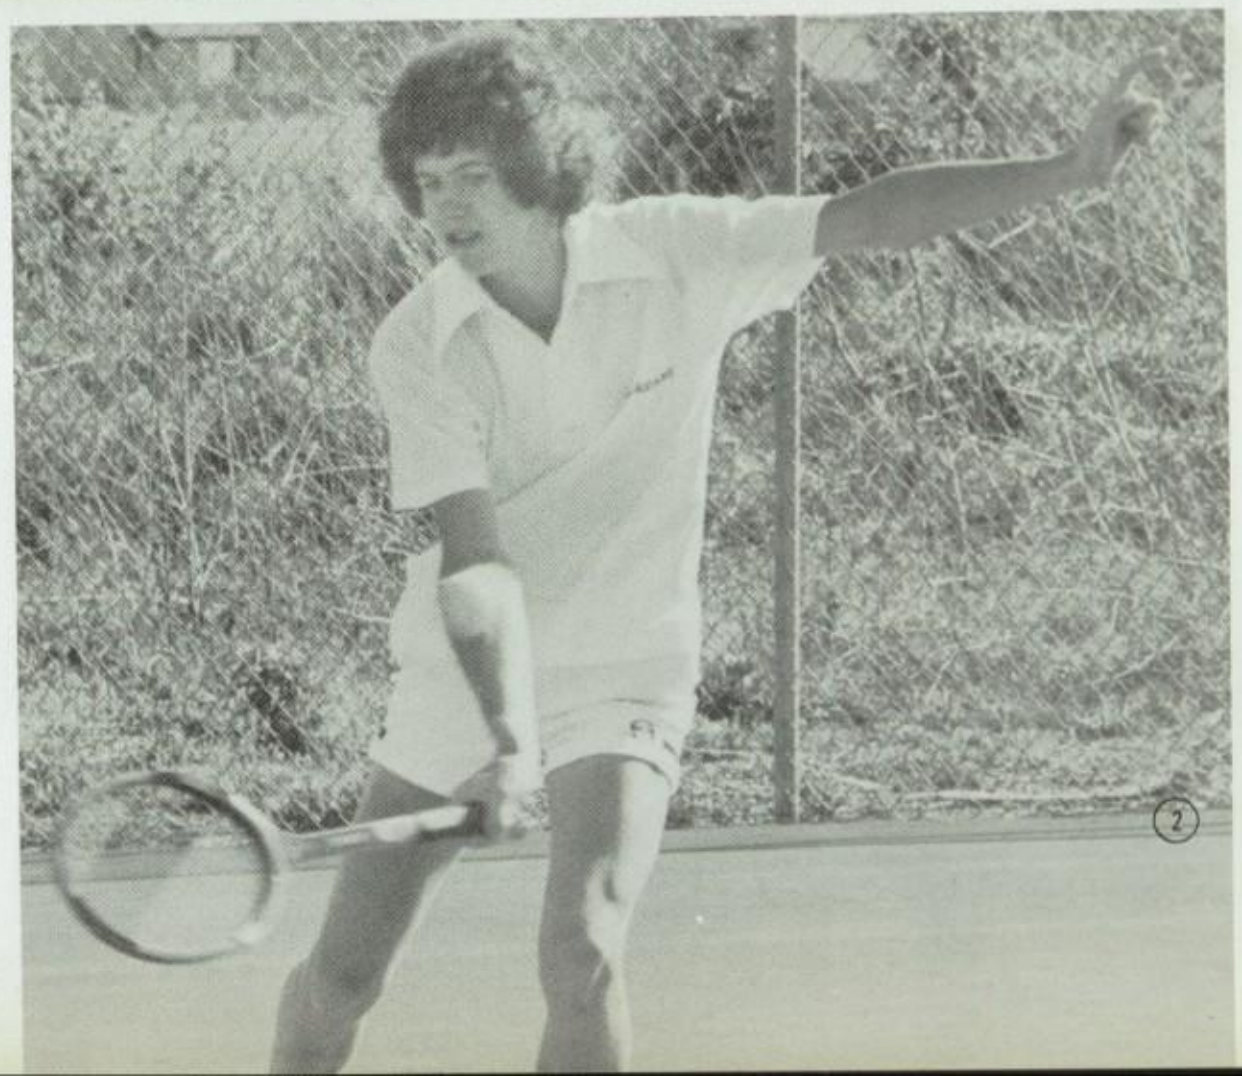
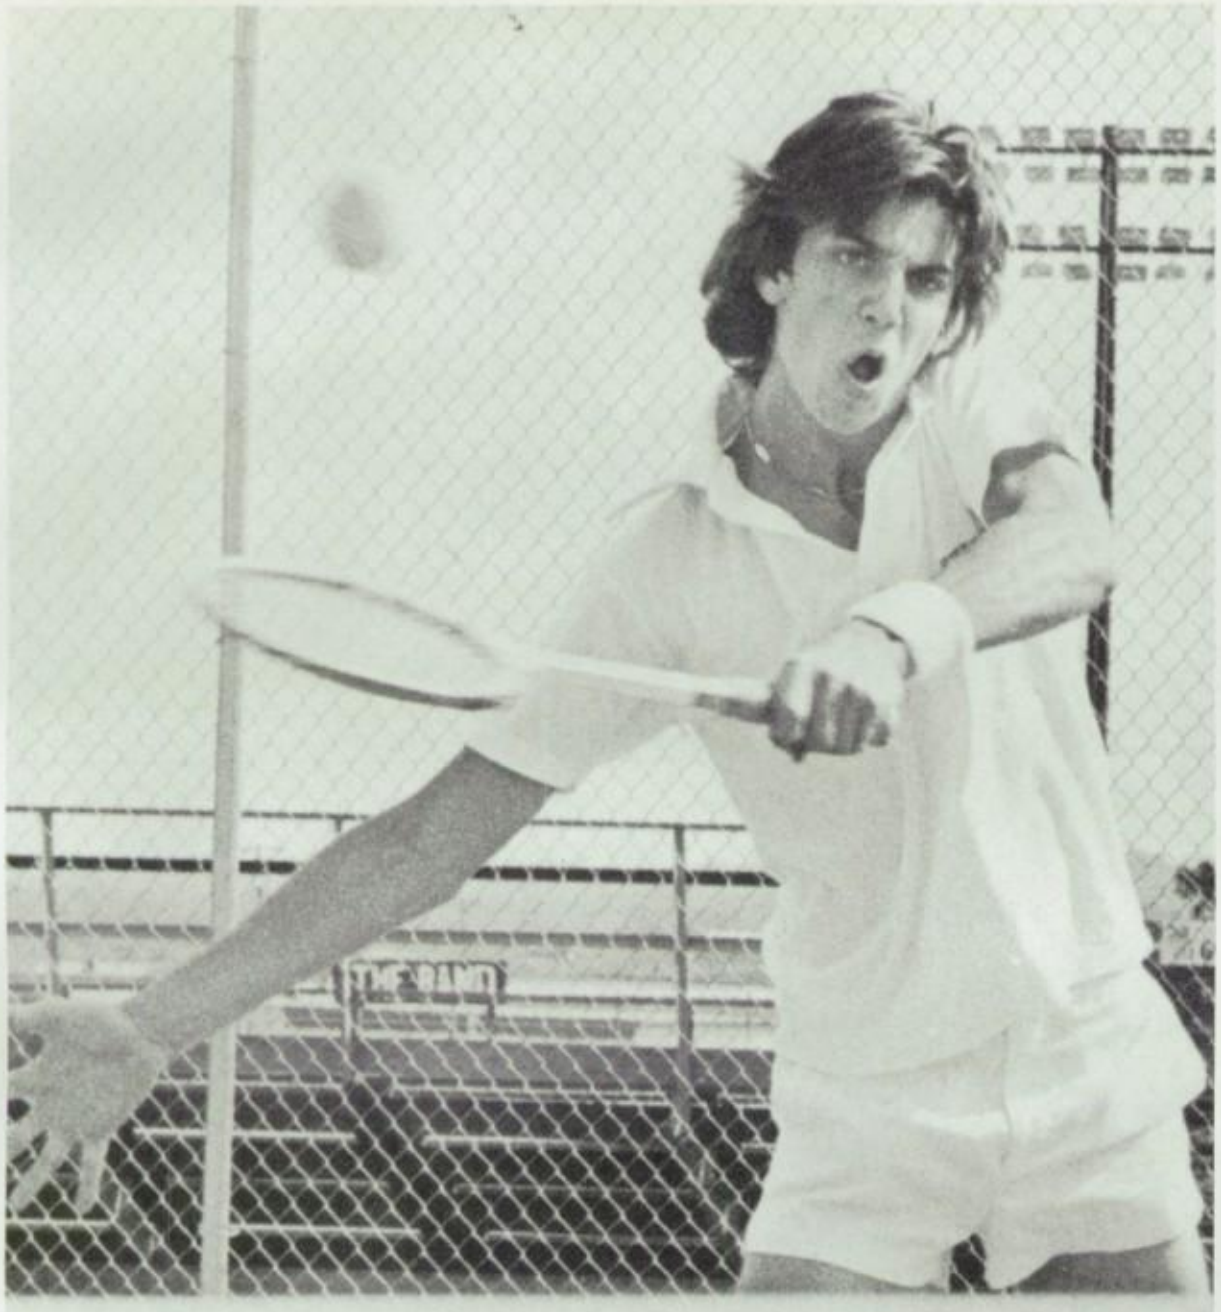
1. DAVID Eddington returns the ball with his backhand during a match. 2. PAUL Bookout watches the ball as he hits the ball back over the net. 3. PHIL Reginelli smashes the ball towards his opponent. 4. BLAKE McFarlin safely returns an opponent's serve.





With the return of five lettermen and a couple of rapidly-progressing freshmen, the 1978 Hurricane Tennis Team looked to be in good shape. Tennis Coach Roger Callahan felt his team would be very successful as they went through the demanding slate of tennis matches.

Coach Callahan obviously had some kind of insight because the tennis team wizzed right through their season without a single scar. They had gone undefeated during the regular season and were now ready for the regionals.

They started the region tournament very confident and they had good reason to be. This confidence showed as they ran away from the rest of schools in the tournament. David Eddington and Jim Million defeated teammates Craig Williams and Blake McFarlin 6-3, 6-3 as they won the doubles competition. Both of these doubles teams qualified for the state tournament. In the singles competition, Paul Bookout also qualified for the state by reaching the semifinals. The other singles entry Phil Reginelli, lost in the quarter finals to the eventual champion Ken Norman of Blytheville 6-4, 6-4.

Both Boys And Girls Have Great Year

The 1978 Boys' and Girls' Tennis teams had a lot in common this year. They both started the season this year with hopes of doing well in their respective divisions. They had good reason to and they both had very successful regular season records.

They both qualified for the region tournament held at Jonesboro. The girls and boys both ran away with their own region tournament, and advanced to the state. Last but not least, they both were led by lone seniors Diana Burleson and Phil Reginelli. So if it is at all possible to improve over this years success, next year's team should be the ones to do it.

1. LEIGH Martin returns an opponents serve. 2. DIANA Burleson smashes a serve. 3. PAUL Bookout returns a volley. 4. MARGARET Cooper awaits her opponent's serve. 5. PHIL Reginelli smashes the ball back over the net.

The girls participated in various meets against Blytheville, West Memphis, Bald Knob, Dumus, Pine Bluff, Augusta, and many others.

Dede, LaWanda, Becky, Lori, Tricia and Sherry attended the district meet in Blytheville. Three of the girls qualified for the state meet. Dede Turner qualified in the vault and floor exercise, Tricia Tarver on the uneven parallel bars, and Sherry Flanigan on the balance beam. They finished second as a team in the district. Dede also made it to the finals at the state meet.

Jonesboro High School Golf team started the season with high hopes because of the return of three of the four lettermen.

The team started with impressive wins over Caruthersville and conference rival Blytheville. The Gang then went on to finish with a very good 11-2-1 in regular season play.

The Hurricanes went into the regionals with hopes of using this as a stepping stone and going on to win the state tournament. They started out strong and shot an impressive 604, with David McKinney and Lanny Grissom tying for medalist honors with a 149 each. The Gang won by 30 shots over second place finisher Blytheville. The team then went to play in the state golf tournament with hopes of bringing home a state championship. They began play and after the first 18 holes, the boys from Jonesboro were winning by 11 shots. They then resumed play on the final 18 holes and somehow let the title slip through their fingers as they ended up in third place. Nevertheless, the Hurricanes should be back next year with a more experienced team, because they will only lose the services of one player, David McKinney, who led the team during their bid for a state championship.

1. DAVID McKinney watches his ball right before it falls into the hole. 2. JUNIOR Ricky McKinney keeps his head down after he hits one of his drives. 3. # Math

The Math Department consisted of many courses including Geometry, Algebra I and II, Annalytical Functions Consumer Math, and Trigonometry. The Mathematics Department is one of the most used sections of our building. Every student that graduates has to have at least two credits or two full years of math. The Math Department consists of many teachers, Mrs. Jean Strauser, Miss Nancy Elphingstone, Mr. Chris Paul, Mr. Thomas Dillinger, Mrs. Emma Sweat, Mr. Howard Pierce, Mrs. Peggy Burnett, Mr. George Frazier. These teachers instructed ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade students for future mathematic careers.

ysical Ed

Basketball, volleyball and trampoline again, were favorites of the Physical Education Department. In the second year in our "new" gym, the PE class was well received by JHS students. Coached by Doug Cobb, Greg Theilmier and Roger Callahan were the boys. Coaches Jean Davidson, Marguerite Duez, Rosie Ward were the girls instructors. Mrs. Davidson also coached the volleyball and gymnastics team and Miss Ward coached the basketball and track team. Coach Cobb coached golf while Coach Callahan took the tennis team. Coach Theilmier assisted in football, basketball and track.

Work Study

The Work Study program is a program for students who are able to work at a job as a part of three credits in their school credits, (one in class, two for lab or a job). While at the job, students recieve pay and learn a trade at the same time.

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, or VICA, as it is more commonly called, has two prerequisites, the student must be a junior or senior and must have at least a "C" average.

1. A JHS student works as an operator. 2. RUSTY Bradley loads coke cases on his job.

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America

Journalism

Journalism Theory is taught by Miss Glenda Weatherford. The class is a prerequisite for a student if he or she plans to be on the Annual Staff or the Newspaper Staff.

During the first semester, students study areas of mass communications, including radio, television, movies, magazines, and newspapers. Students study the techniques of writing and layout second semester for the newspaper and annual.

Family Living - Foods - Housing

Home Ec

The Home Economics Department consists of a majority of courses for girls and a course for boys. Contemporary Living was a big smash with the boys this year. Many students found rewards in learning to fit their clothers and cook "little goodies." Home Ec, along with Clothing, Housing, Foods, Family Lliving and Occupational Child Care were all courses mainly for girls, but, like Industrial Arts, they are open for both sexes.

1. CASSANDRA Sturkey and Maurice Prunty work on projects during class. 2,3. CHRISTI Crowe starts out alone with the oven cleaning chores but soon is aided by Rob Drum. 4,5. # Art

Pottery and Ceramics, new fields last year, attracted much attention in the art department. Basic Art I, the first in a series of courses through Advanced Art II provide a creative period for students. Mrs. Mary Chambers, Mrs. Nancy Gleen, and Mrs. Cathy Grigsby are the teachers of the art courses. The outside of the Art Department took on a new look this year with the addition of a painted sign designating the Art Department.

1. THESE students enjoy their art class.

English

The English Department at JHS added a few walls to lessen the noise problem and decreased excess noise considerably. The English program prospered from the lack of noise and was able to accelerate courses. Creative Writing, Biblical Literature, French, Grammar and Language, and Spanish were among the subjects offered. These courses made English one of the most popular sections of the school day.

Teachers in the English Department were Marguerite Brown, Marguerite Duez, Ruby Faught, Jane Jamison, Sarah Johnston, Mary Smith, Sonja Williams, Earline Smith, Ellen Pittenger, Mary Cress, Annie Parker, Johnny Redd, Evelyn Seaton, Mary Willcockson and Miss Glenda Weatherford.

Biblical Lit—Advanced Comp—Short Story

1. MRS. Seaton reads to her English class. 2. CINDI Caldwell and Doug Peters seem to enjoy their English class. 3. MR. Redd leads a class in group discussion. 4. MRS. Smith hands back papers to a class. 5. MRS. Faught instructs a student privately.

History

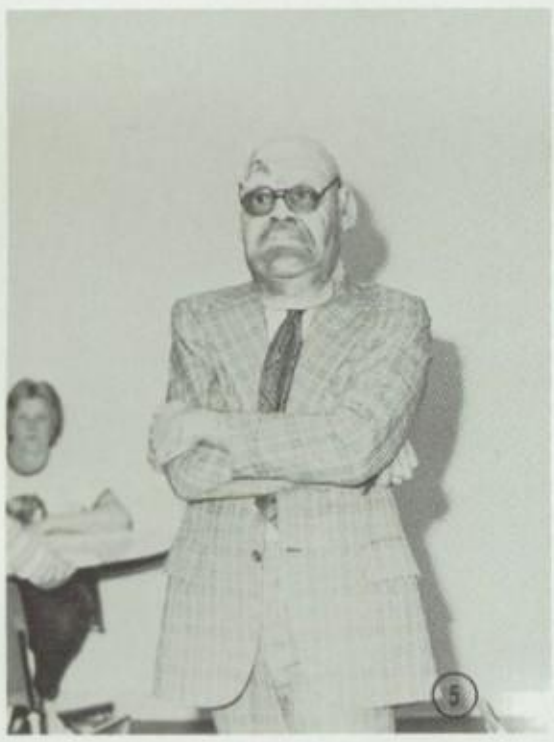
The Jonesboro High School History Department teaches a variety of subjects during the school year. Civics, American History, World History, American Government, Economics and Psychology headed the list of exciting classes offered by the history department.

Mrs. Jessica Trevathan, Mr. Mike Dungan, Mrs. Marjorie Hieber, Mr. Steve Ewart, Mr. Robert Blanchard, Mr. Barry Pruitt, Mr. Carey Walker, Mr. Phillip Jones and Miss Barbara Butler are the teachers of our History Department.

1. TIM Hynes concentrates on his paper while others in the class devote attention to the board. 2. TERRY Glenn, Rusty Carson and Scott Clay love to look at cameras during class. 3. JOHN Aycock, Tom Elwood, Skipper Smith and Lanny Grissam seem to have something besides class on their mind. 4. This Civics Class appears to be attentive to their books. 5. Mr. Walker often provides "interesting view points" on certain subjects.



Civics - American History - World History

Industrial Arts

Mr. David Torbett and Mr. Robert Stephens teach industrial arts courses at JHS. Mechanical Drawing I and II, Industrials Arts and Architectural Drafting supplied the boys with a chance to "do their thing." It gives a guy a chance to express himself by making things, and by things we mean anything. One person is said to have made a coffin.

1. ALAN McDaniel uses a saw to cut some wood in Industrial Arts. 2. MARTY Bennett and Steve Hales draw sketches in Architectural Drawings. 3. MR. Torbett instructs a student on how to use a steal saw.

Seniors Celebrate Homecoming

In keeping with tradition, the senior class built the Royalty float for Homecoming. The theme of the float, Beauties in Toyland, was carried out with large toy soldiers and animals and the Royalty sat on large toy blocks.

The float won the second place prize and was one of the many ways that the Class of 78 celebrated Homecoming.

juniors

Junior Class officers for 1977-78 were: Matt Garner, president; Jim Osment, vice-president; Bob Childress, treasurer; Kim Ivy, secretary; Kelli Johnson, secretary (second semester).

Class projects for the year included a car wash, homecoming activities, the Junior Class Play, "Our Town", and the Junior-Senior Prom.

Money from the car wash was used for the homecoming float which won first place.

A successful Junior Class Play earned the class about $500 and the money was used for the Junior-Senior Prom.

'WORKIN' AT THE CAR WASH'

Among the activities sponsored by the Junior Class last year was the fall car wash in October at Jonesboro Security Insurance.

The project was held to raise money for the Junior Class homecoming float. Over one-hundred and fifty dollars was raised.

The car wash started at 9:00 a.m. and lasted until 5:00 p.m.

"Attitudes And Relationships"

"Attitudes and relationships," according to most juniors, need improving at Jonesboro High. Many students pointed out specific problems but most felt the underlying problem was the attitude of the students.

"JHS students should be thankful for what they have," commented Jimmy McNeil, who attended another school where there were even fewer rights for students than at JHS.

Jim Sanders summed up the problem by saying the only way to improve the school is for the faculty, administration, and students to work together instead of against each other.

Members of the Junior Class spent their leisure time during school year doing eveything from chasing girls and boys to playing the piano.

Many of the junior girls spent their leisure hours playing softball or just "goofing around."

Spare time was somewhat limited by the fact that a majority of juniors spent their off-campus hours at part-time jobs. Between this and study, free time activities were restricted to movies and general "running around."

JUNIORS SHOW SPIRIT

The Junior Class at JHS showed spirit in a vareity of activities throughout the 77-78 school year.

Although unsuccessful at the pep rallies, only winning one spirit stick, the class of 1979 had some of the largest attendances at athletic functions, including road games.

Juniors showed their spirit not only by yelling but also by their willingness to participate in "help-type" activities. Included in these were the Red Cross Bloodmobile, gathering donations for two destitute families, and the Salvation Army's Christmas and Thanksgiving drives.

SPIRIT WEEK

The past year the Sophomore Class has been known very well for showing their school spirit, and taking an active part in school activities. Homecoming was Oct. 10-14, and the Student Council declared it "Spirit Week." Monday was signs and glasses day, Tuesday was backward and clashy colors day, Wednesday was overalls day, Thursday was hat day, and Friday was black and gold day.

Although the Sophomore Class didn't place this year in the Homecoming Parade, they still enjoyed getting together and working on a float to represent their class.

Sophomore students worked many hours after school to build the float.

SOPHS GIVE SUPPORT

The Sophomore Class was not shy in any way when it came to showing their school spirit this year. The majority of the sophomores attended most of the Hurricane football and basketball games.

The Annual Staff's theme for 1978 was "Celebrate 78" and the sophomore class lived up to the theme very well, by backing them at all the games, attending many other school activities, and having a good attitude toward life at school.

The sophomores have shown much school spirit this year, and if they continue, there will be no problem in having good school spirit next year.

it's time to take a BREAK!

The commons area at Jonesboro High School is a favorite gathering place for many of the sophomore students. Here they can meet and talk about the happenings of the day.

Besides a gathering place, the commons area offers a good variety of food. Students can have a snack in the snack bar, or a full meal in the cafeteria. Instead of leaving the school campus during noon, many of the sophomores stay on campus and eat.

1. SOPHOMORE students talk about the events of the day, in the commons area. 2. SHARON Petty enjcys the lunch hour with a couple of friends. 3. CRAIG Gschwend always finds time to pose for the camera.

Sophomores have found that taking an active part in the school's clubs can be very interesting, and is a good way to meet many new friends. The clubs meet at least once a month to discuss their future plans, such as cleaning up the school's campus, raising money for charity organizations, and meeting with school officers to discuss ways to improve the student involvement in school activities. Sophomores have played an important role in many of the schools clubs, this year, helping make decisions that will be best for the student body, and for the Sophomore Class as well. 1. The sophomore students have found out that learning can be fun, that they can enjoy themselves while they study. This year, the sophomore students have had a lot more freedom in the class room, and most of them enjoy it. Recently at Jonesboro High we tried the "open" classroom situation, to try and make the students feel less confined in the old four-walled classroom. A new computerized scheduling system was also put into effect, giving the students the freedom to pick their classes, times, and own instructor.

As the school year began coming to a close, the Sophomore Class began looking for a summer vacation, that was well deserved. All year the sophomores worked hard.

They attended many of the football and basketball games, showed much school spirit in the pep meetings, attended many other school activities and spent many hard hours in getting homework and studying for tests.

The sophomores had a good school year and have many memories that they will never forget.

As we take a final look at 1978, we can see that we have made many accomplishments and have achieved many goals. We can see that we have grown both mentally and physically, and that getting along with other people makes life more enjoyable.

On May 20, the Freshmen had a dance at the YMCA to raise money for their class.

Freshmen enjoyed their freedom first semester of school. The second semester they had study halls to replace their free periods. One freshman, Nancy Miller commented, "It's a waste of time for the students and the teachers." The study hall was provided to help students study and prepare for their classes."It really doesn't help us. It just makes us bored and want to skip," stated Paul Tucker about the situation. Another student Kevin Donovan replied "It's no fair for the people who go to classes. I think the people who skip should have to go to study hall."

What do freshmen do in between classes? There's not that much you can do in five minutes. Most students go to their locker or just talk. Becky McCall answered, "I pass notes." Julie McCoy does something very different, "I usually recite my Rosann-Rosanna-Dana imitations."

1. KAREN Carter gets a surprise picture taken while getting her jacket out of her locker. 2. SONJA Prunty stops to eat some ice cream before going to class. 3. FRANCES Hobson, Lisa Higgins, Julie McCoy, and Lee Woodruff take advantage of a sunny day by eating outside.

It seems that students always have time to talk. No matter where you go you can see people talking. That's how most people spend their free time. Talking is more than a way of communication. It tells something about a person's personality. You can usually find out if you have things in common with a person by just talking to them.

JAMES Kissinger has a loss for words while Susan Suggs stamps his hand.

Freshmen Can't

The Freshman Class sponsored a dance on May 20 at the YMCA. The dance was to raise money for the Freshman Class. All of JHS students were invited to attend. From 7 till 11:30, students bumped and boogied. Mike Griffith and Ron Vaughn were the D.J.'s.

Freshmen have the "Saturday Night Fever."

MISS WEATHERFORD
ADVISOR

NANCY
EDITOR

These three staff pages exist to give recognition to the people who worked for so many hours to put together this book. We tried to make it something you can enjoy now, while your memories of 1978 are still sharp and clear, as well as many years in the future, as these memories start to fade. We hope we succeeded.

The entire staff wishes to thank Mrs. Morene Settlemire and Mr. Bill Lemmons at Wilson's Studio for their continued aid in the production of JHS yearbooks. The Hurricane '78 benefitted from this continuance of support, backed by special favors, as previous yearbooks have.

There are four people whose pictures do not appear on these pages, but were members of the staff: Jackie Herring, Irene Atkinson, Julie Withem, and Bill Bobbitt. The first three left the staff at semester and we could not locate them when the staff pictures were taken. Bill is one of our photographers and seems to have just been on the wrong side of the camera that day. They deserve a tremendous amount of credit and have my sincerest appologies for the exclusion of their pictures on these pages. Tammy Herring also graduated at semester, but she and Julie came to class more often second semester than some of the other staff members. Julie was the backbone of our Support division, and without her, our entire budget would have been blown. She took care of everything concerning the ads, with the help of Karen Smith, and this was the section of the book I was the least concerned about, because I knew these girls had it under control.

Tammy Herring also saved me a lot of anxiety over the Clubs section. She deserves the credit for this entire division. It is probably the most difficult and least rewarding section of a yearbook, but I feel she handled it well. Trying to get pictures and information from all the clubs at JHS is enough to give anyone ulcers, as Tammy well knew from her experiences last year (she also completed this section single-handedly then, too), but even knowing this, she volunteered to continue her work on this section although she dropped the class at semester. This entire division was virtually done during Tammy' s out-of-class free time, and there is no way I can begin to say how much I appreciate it. I'm sure I never could have done it.

. . . IT'S OUR BABY!

Fran Adams was my associate editor: my "crutch." She composed the Success section with the exception of the pages on graduation. She was also around to encourage and support me through some of my decisions, as well as stop me from making others.

Tony Busby and Mark Hayes were essential to this yearbook. They were the photographers, which means they had to be at every activity imaginable all year long to be able to provide the staff with the pictures they needed. They always provided us with high-quality pictures and often found these same pictures slaughtered by the paper cutter in the hands of the staff members wanting to fit them into spaces they were not meant for. I'm sure it was very difficult to work for so long and hard trying to conceive the perfect picture only to have it carelessly cut up to fit on a page, or not even used at all. I often complained to them about their perpetual tardiness in developing the pictures, and completely lost my temper at Tony one day, but I do realize the enormous amount of work they put into their pictures. I am very, very grateful to them for the quality of work they always gave us, and the concern for the yearbook that was apparent through their long, hard work. I do not know how Fran will ever be able to replace them, but I'm glad it's her worrying about it and not me.

Melanie Stepp drew up the Senior section, as well as various pages in Student Life, with help from Vicki Glass. As a senior, Melanie was officially out of school May 17, but I depended and counted on her help clear through to the middle of June, which brought the completion of the yearbook. She, along with Charlotte Warhurst came up to the school almost daily early in the morning, often not leaving until the middle of the afternoon.

Charlotte tackled the Sophomore section, as well as the faculty. Her determination to finish these sections was amazing, considering all the difficulties she encountered.

Scotty Gibson worked on miscellaneous sections of student life, such as all the theater productions. His layouts have all been top quality and he often was assigned the least appealing pages to develop because of his capabilities.

Chuck Gschwend and Matt Garner were in charge of the Sports section, as they were last year. Matt also was assigned the Classes section at the very last minute and put a lot of hard work into it. As a matter of fact, he ALMOST finished it. The completion of this section was undertaken by our advisor, Miss Weatherford and myself, but it was merely a matter of organizing the information Matt had collected. I am very proud of the effort Matt put into this section without too much complaint.

Mike Griffin layed out the Junior section with help from Kevin Pagan. This was Mike's first year on staff, but he caught on quickly.

David Causey put together some of the loose ends by doing miscellaneous layouts and helping Charlotte do the Sophomore section.

Most of my help came from our advisor, Miss Weatherford. She stayed with us through missed deadlines, and endless hours of summer vacation spent at the school working on the book. Without her, we never would have made it.

Next year, Fran Adams will edit the Hurricane '79, and I hope she enjoys it as much as I did. I think she learned a lot this year from my mistakes, and will be able to put out a better yearbook because of them.
